THE AUSTRIAN REVOLT

Search For The Master Mind

Vienna, Aug. 6.
Ever since the attempted putsch which led to the death of Chancellor Dollfuss, the Austrian police have been seeking "Herr Kunze" who is believed to have been the master mind behind the movement.
It is now alleged that the well-known Nazi lawyer, Dr. Waechter, who defended Rudolf Dertl, the man who attempted, unsuccessfully, to shoot Dr. Dollfuss last year, is "Kunze."
It is stated that during the occupation of the Chancellery, the rebels tried to telephone "Kunze" at a cafe in order to consult him, but he had already fled.
Dr. Waechter is alleged to have reached Germany.

THE DEATH ROLL

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Vienna, Aug. 6.
The official death roll of the insurgent forces in the hotly contested Province of Carinthia during a three-day guerrilla warfare following the failure of the Vienna putsch on July 25, was published in Government journals here on Monday. The stubbornly fighting rebels lost over a hundred dead while the combined forces of the army, the police and the semi-military groups took prisoners totaling 6,100. Approximately 700 leaders lost hope, and were further reported to have fled across the Yugoslavian border, nearly half of them having been residents of the neighbouring Levant Valley section.

INSURGENTS ON TRIAL

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Vienna, Aug. 6.
The first trial of the Carinthian insurgents began Monday before a military tribunal in Klagenfurt. The defendants are Karl Kostelning and Joseph Brunner who were taken prisoners in the bloody fighting in Levant Valley and charged with high treason. Kostelning is furthermore accused of having shot major Smolle of the Federal Army, who was killed in the fighting.
A severe sentence was passed by the court martial in Graz on the National-Socialist Eisenhut, who was involved in the shooting affray which took place on July 25 at Sanktmargarethen between a group of National-Socialists and several gendarmes and in the course of which no one was injured. Eisenhut was given fifteen years' hard labour, intensified by incarceration in a dark cell every July 25.

DR. RINTELEN'S CONDITION

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Vienna, Aug. 6.
The condition of Dr. Rintelen, former Minister to Rome and the insurgents' candidate for the successor of Dollfuss, continued to be critical on Monday, but the physicians expressed confidence in the eventual recovery of the unfortunate statesman who attempted suicide following his arrest ten days ago.

BOUNDARY ON THE RHINE

German Point Of View

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]

Berlin, Aug. 6.
Hitler's replies to the questions on the critical points in the International policy in an interview with the English Journalist, Ward Price, is attracting the greatest attention here. Quoting Mr. Baldwin's recent words that Britain's defence line now lies along the Rhine, the Chancellor said: "It is likely that a French statesman will go even further some day and say that France must defend on the Oder River, or Russia might well claim that its national defence line stretches to the Danube. Under such circumstances it is difficult to reproach Germany if she seeks her national defence within her own boundaries."
Interrogated concerning the Austro-German relations, Hitler replied: "We would not attack Austria but we cannot keep Austria from attempting to re-achieve a former union with Germany. These States are separated only by a line. On both sides live people of the same race. If part of England were artificially cut off from the rest, who would want to hinder the process of reunion. The Anschluss, however, is not the question of the present day. I am sure the whole situation will be cleared up if secret negotiations are held in Austria. But Austrian independence lies outside of any discussion and no one questions it."

CAPT. COSTES ARRIVES AT BRINDISI

Crash Rumours Dispelled

Paris, Aug. 6.
Captain Costes, the famous French flyer, has arrived safely at Brindisi, according to a message received here from Rome, thus contradicting the earlier rumours that he had crashed in the Alps and had been seriously injured.
Captain Costes, who is flying to Rome from Paris, only stayed at Brindisi long enough to refuel before taking off for Athens. He declared that he had not met with any accident.

MARCHING IN GANGS

Rowdy Youths And Girls

Unusual steps to deal with rowdy week-end campers at Heswall, on the Cheshire banks of the Dee, are being contemplated.

Residents threaten to leave the district if this camping scandal is not checked, and local councillors are urging a policy of water starvation to keep the unwanted visitors out.

Complaints of terrorism are made against these uncontrolled campers, who invade the shore fields on Saturdays and turn the peaceful week-ends into a riot of discordant song, coarse jests, and wild horseplay.

They troop in from Birkenhead and Liverpool, marching in gangs with their raucous voices raised to the strains of concertinas, ukeleles, and accordions.

By Saturday midnight the camping community has reached two or three hundred, and until the early hours of Sunday morning a carnival of rowdiness prevails.

Threat To Resident

"My wife and I," said a Heswall resident, "were kept awake until 3 o'clock in the morning by these campers, and at last I went out to them to protest. My appeals were laughed at, violence was threatened, and, finally, I was told 'Get out of this or we'll fire your house!'

"When my wife came out, fearing some harm would befall me, she was assailed with such language that she collapsed and did not recover consciousness for an hour."

"These uncontrolled youths and girls who come out here on Saturdays for a fresco of orgies beneath strips of canvas hanging over pieces of sticks, and who pretend they are legitimate campers, are a disgrace to civilisation and a menace to society," declared Mr. Edwin Crisp, a member of the Heswall Council.

"We are appealing to the West Cheshire Water Board to prohibit anyone from selling water, as is being done at 6d. per bucket, to these undesirable visitors."

"We are also presenting our case to the Ministry of Health."

Suitor The Patient

Friend: "Fresh air? Is that all the doctor recommended?" Patient: "I guess she knew that was all I could afford to pay for."

QUEEN'S FLOWER DAY

Celebration to Help Unemployed

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 20.

"Queen Mary Flower Day" was held in Edinburgh on Saturday, and, happily, the weather, which had been very wet overnight and in the morning, cleared in the forenoon.

The object of the celebration was to assist the Edinburgh Council for Community Service in "Unemployment," and the Queen was greatly interested and was a royal patroness.

Two women flower-sellers had been asked to call at the Palace of Holyroodhouse, and those selected were Miss Thomson, daughter of Lord Provost Sir William Thomson, and Councillor Mrs. Morrison Miller.

Holyrood Sales

They carried two sheaves of lovely carnations and a quantity of the artificial violets which were being vended throughout the city. At the Palace, where they remained for about an hour, they had excellent sales.

The King and Queen accepted souvenir copies of the programme of the floral pageant fixed for the evening. These were bound in blue leather and had embossed upon the covers the royal arms and the city arms.

The King and Queen left the Palace of Holyroodhouse at 11.30 a.m. and proceeded to the residence of Lord Hamilton of Dalzell, where they partook of luncheon before attending the races in Hamilton Park.

20,000 Spectators

On their return journey from the races the King and Queen visited the "scoutin'-schaw" at Dreghorn, Edinburgh, and thereafter motored to Princes Street, where the floral pageant was halted.

Edinburgh's famous thoroughfare was densely crowded from the General Post Office to the West End, and in the three-quarters of a mile there must have been at least 20,000 spectators, including large numbers of visitors.

No Edinburgh pageant has ever exceeded that of Saturday, the beautiful floral display being both lavish and artistic. There was a complete absence of the advertising element, a feature of other Edinburgh pageants, the appeal being a purely aesthetic one.

Decorated Vehicles

The King and Queen reached Princes Street from the Dreghorn "scoutin'-schaw" just as the pageant was being drawn up to Princes Street, which was then in a blaze of floral beauty.

At the West End the royal cars halted near the street island, which has been converted into a gorgeous flower-plot surrounded by turf and flanked by decorated pylons.

There Miss Patricia Thomson, the younger daughter of the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, made presentation of a white carnation buttonhole to the King.

To the Queen she presented a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations. Both the King and the Queen shook hands with Miss Patricia. Her Majesty asked, with a smile, if she had been vended flowers.

Continuous Cheering

Slowly the royal cars then proceeded along Princes Street past the highly ornamented vehicles with their wealth of fresh flowers. There was continuous cheering from the dense crowds and from the exhibitors.

When the King and Queen had reached the Palace of Holyroodhouse they watched through a high window a dancing display upon the lawn by about 150 prettily attired children.

Their Majesties acknowledged the dainty curties of the young enthusiasts and evidently appreciated their performance. Music was provided for the dancers by the band of the 4/5th Royal Scots (Queen's Edinburgh Rifles).

BROOKLANDS' TRIBUTE TO TIM BIRKIN

A Great Sportsman

A memorial to the late Sir H. Birkin in the form of a bronze plaque on the wall of the Club-house was unveiled by Lord Howe at Brooklands recently. It bears the inscription: "To the memory of a great sportsman and brilliant driver who died on June 22, 1933, from injuries after his last road race at Tripoli."

THE KING AND QUEEN AT SCOUTIN' SCHAW

Cheers From 12,000 Throats At Dreghorn Castle

LORD BADEN-POWELL SENDS "GOOD LUCK" TELEGRAM

A storm of cheering greeted the King and Queen when they arrived at the "Scoutin' Schaw" at Dreghorn, Edinburgh, on Saturday evening.

The troops had congregated with detachments of Girl Guides—about 1800 in all—in the green arena, which was surrounded by 10,000 spectators, and as the King and Queen drove towards the royal stand the cheering increased, and many Scout hats were flung high to emphasise the loyal welcome.

Then came a sudden silence, and all stood to attention while the county flags were lowered as the band of the Royal Scots Greys rendered the National Anthem.

As soon as the King and Queen were seated there was a rush of enthusiastic Wolf Cubs on to the ground.

They scampered in their own merry manner, raising their "howl," and after a lively demonstration as they crouched on the grass they scampered out of the arena in disciplined confusion.

The scene unfolded to the King and Queen was a picturesque and colourful one.

Tartans of various clans were flaunted by kilted pipers and in various troops in the crowded arena, and these blizzards with the blues of the Girl Guides, the khaki and variegated ribbons and neckwear of the Scouts, and the flags and the red coats of the Royal Scots Greys band.

The stands were crowded, and the available space around the ropes densely packed. In the background were the tinted tents of the various Scout divisions, occupying undulating ground, which was richly girl with thick belts of state-ly trees.

The sky was overcast by masses of cloud, but no rain fell, and the air was warm.

A Dramatic Turn

The King and Queen witnessed a dramatic turn entitled "Tribal War Dance" by the Leith troop. Attired like Melanesians of the South Sea Islands in ribboned kilts and bewigged with fuzzy black hair, the youngsters had blackened faces and bodies and were armed with spears.

A few came on with their costumed chief, and a white man whom they had captured was tied to a stake.

A "medicine man" summoned others by beating his "tom-tom," and the scene became very animated as they scampered on to the field and then scurried in a circle.

Doomed—?

The "medicine man" flourishing a knife, made mock-play as to how the captive was to be disposed of, while the natives howled their assent.

Firewood was fetched by scampering natives, and then the "medicine man" indicated how the flames would leap up around the victim. Magical gesticulations and posturings followed, and a sort of "Hula-hula" arm dance was given in animated style.

It seemed that the victim was doomed, but suddenly the chief arose and began to mesmerise his followers who, one after another, fell prostrate, dropping their weapons.

Saved!

When the last had been thus disposed of the chief pulled off his mask and headress, revealing the fact that he was a white man in disguise. Quickly he released the captive and hastened off with him.

After an interval the mesmerised natives stirred from magical sleep, and grasping their weapons, howled their war cries and gave chase, vanishing from the arena.

The King and Queen left the royal stand after this animated performance, and the National Anthem was again rendered.

In the meantime the wooded private road, leading to the highway had been lined by Scouts, Cubs and Girl Guides, and, as the royal car moved slowly down the incline, there was a scene of thrilling youthful loyalty.

BULLET BEATS TANK

Successful Canadian Research

A Bullet which—equipped with an aluminium cap—can smash its way through a steel plate on which an ordinary Service bullet scarcely makes a mark has been perfected. Steel helmets are no protection at all against it.

Every infantry soldier supplied with this bullet will at once become a potential danger to any armoured car or tank.

The new bullet has been perfected by the Canadian Research Council of National Defence after more than two years of experimental work.

It is a high-velocity light bullet capable of being fired from a rifle with a muzzle velocity of 8,000ft. a second.

That is more than three times as high as the muzzle velocity of the ordinary Service rifle.

The Canadian experiment is especially interesting in view of the fact that in the near future the British Army will be re-armed with a new rifle.

As present the Army is using the same rifle as during the war.

MARRIED IN HOSPITAL

Mr. J. D. Rockefeller's

Grand-Niece

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 20.

The bedside of her ailing mother was the unusual setting of the marriage of Miss Geraldine Rockefeller McCormick, grand-niece of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, to Dr. Jerome Webster, a plastic surgeon. The bride's mother, who has been in hospital for many months, was carried in her bed to a private pavilion of the hospital which had been fitted up as a chapel with white flowers basked in the corners.

BRITISH FILM MERGER

Five Big Companies Involved

An important British film merger, involving five major picture companies and controlling a capital of nearly 23,000,000, was recently completed.

The Associated British Picture Corporation acquired the share capital of Associated British Cinemas, Limited, and British Instructional Films (Proprietors), Ltd.

The new controlling company now becomes the parent concern of five important British film enterprises. They are:

British International, the pioneers of the "big film" development in Britain.

Associated British Cinemas, a chain of more than 200 cinemas; British Instructional, the makers of the famous "Secrets of Nature" interest pictures.

And two important renting and distributing companies, Wardour Films and Pathe Pictures.

These companies have been under the control of Mr. John Maxwell, the chairman of British International, for some considerable time, but by linking them all up under one controlling company he has now built up a corporation with a strong hold on the entire motion-picture industry of this country.

The directors announce that the combined profits of the corporation for the year ending March 31 are likely to be £270,000.

Keep Young and Healthy WITH KALZANA

the Calcium Food

What KALZANA does

Complaints

that show that Kalzana is needed—right away

1 In Women

Discomfort and pain can usually be combated in a short time by Kalzana tablets, for Kalzana regulates the system and relieves the pain.

As a doctor wrote in the "South African Medical Record": "Whenever there is disfunction in the body, lack of calcium is probably a contributing factor." By taking Kalzana the Calcium balance is restored and the functions are regulated again. Because Kalzana is a calcium food and does not contain any harmful ingredients it must do good and cannot possibly be harmful.

2 In Skin Troubles

Lack of calcium leads to Rashes, Eczema, Nettle-rash, and other forms of Skin Trouble. Here Kalzana has been proven of the greatest value.

In the case of Nettle-rash a few large doses (6-8 tablets each time) will conquer the rash very quickly indeed and stop the itching. In the case of Eczema, it will take a little longer, for the calcium must have time to strengthen the walls of the blood-vessels and the cells of the skin.

Gradually the Eczema will disappear and the itching will stop.

3 When one is over forty

Easily induced fatigue, dizziness, difficult breathing, blurred vision, low resistance against colds and infections—all these symptoms are warnings which should be heeded immediately, especially if one is over forty. Calcium deficiency at that age becomes a distinct menace and Kalzana should be taken in order to avoid unpleasant reminders of

The discovery of Kalzana has confirmed the theory that many complaints were only due to a lack of this element in our system. Years ago physicians had expected to find that lack of calcium would be at the bottom of many complaints, but experiments to conquer these complaints with calcium salts were a failure. We now know that this happened because ordinary calcium combinations leave the body again without doing any good. But all these difficulties have been overcome with Kalzana. In Kalzana the calcium is combined with another salt in such a way that it is—easily absorbed, easily retained, and it is pleasant to take

Kalzana strengthens all the body cells, improves the condition of the blood, and builds healthy teeth. It also soothes the nerves—irritability is often a sign that the nerve threads are weakening for lack of calcium.

Do not wait till YOU or your CHILD suffer in expectant mothers

Calcium is needed in great quantities to build up bones and body cells of the expected child. Many complaints of the mother are due to the growing child's excessive demands for calcium. General weakness, loss of hair and tooth-decay may be conquered with Kalzana, the calcium food.

The General Practitioner, a well-known Medical Journal, writes:

"Kalzana acts efficiently in protecting the expectant and nursing mother against a dangerous loss of calcium."

Why lose your health? Guard your youth and freshness by taking Kalzana. Then you will also be sure that baby will be strong and sturdy.

For Weak Teeth

Many people suffer continuously from their teeth. Of course this should not be, and it need not be, if one takes Kalzana tablets regularly. For Kalzana arrests tooth-decay and makes your teeth strong and hard, and able to withstand the attacks of microbes and acids.

Remember that your teeth are living parts of your body and that the food they require—calcium—is liberally infused into your body by Kalzana.

Start a course of Kalzana and save yourself much pain and trouble.

The opinion of well-known medical papers about KALZANA:

"The Pharmaceutical Journal of New Zealand," Jan. 1930.

"Kalzana has been used with very good results in cases of calcium deficiency, such as bone diseases, dental caries, rickets, weakness in growing children, during pregnancy and lactation—in fact, in all cases where a diet with an excessive calcium content is necessary." Rickets too are a typical sign of a lack of calcium. Kalzana will set all that right, and very soon your child will be happy and healthy again.

"The British Journal of Tuberculosis," April 1929:

"We have employed Kalzana with much advantage in the management of delicate children. It seems to be of considerable service in cases of rickets and other morbid conditions of bone and also as a preventive of dental caries. For pregnant women Kalzana is often beneficial."

1934-35

EIGHT OF THEIR "SPECIALS"

THE MERRY WIDOW

Waltz down your aisles and vision your packed theatre spell bound as Maurice Chevalier with delicious gayety flirts, sings, conquers the rich and merry widow, exquisitely portrayed by Jeanette MacDonald. Ernst Lubich, sly maestro of love's magic, makes a glorious screen holiday of this beloved romance, now at last on the talking screen. Its vivacious Franz Lehár melodies are brought to audiences by six different symphony orchestras. Additional cast names are: Edward Everett Horton, Una Merkel, George Barbier, Minna Gombell. And the genius of Thalberg guides it to glory!

DAVID COPPERFIELD

1934-35 will be known as 'The year of David Copperfield!' The heart of humanity beat faster when the news was flashed that M.G.M. would bring its unlimited resources of talent and physical equipment to the production of Charles Dickens' beautiful soul-stirring novel. A special trip abroad was made by Producer David O. Selznick with director George Cukor (he made 'Little Women'), and Howard Estabrook scenarist. Thousands of 'sets' were made of characters, architectural details copied and re-searched such as no picture ever enjoyed has been under way for months here and abroad. A cast of sixty-eight characters will bristle with big names! A final master stroke was the singing of Hugh Walpole, noted author and Dickens authority, to lend counsel during the filming. A monumental enterprise is under way, only M.G.M. could attempt it!

THE GOOD EARTH

No other story property, whether a novel or stage play, was ever so desired by all producers! M.G.M. is honoured to be the means whereby Pearl S. Buck's thrilling novel is to be brought to the screen. It is an honour because 'The Good Earth' is the most widely read book of our times... an obligation to far-flung millions whose heart throbs, smiles and tears were showered on its unforgettable pages. Such humanity-in-fiction requires the unmatched production genius of a Thalberg, the screen-writing talents of a Frances Marion, the directorial flair of a George Hill (a combination that gave you 'The Big House' and 'Min and Bill'). For months Director Hill and a huge staff traveled in little known parts of China, accumulating materials, backgrounds facts... to make this heart-drama real, vibrant, true!

CHAINED

It is an occasion for dancing in the streets when Joan Crawford and Clark Gable unite their magnetic personalities to tell a screen story of glamour and allure! Picture audiences, recalling with delight the romantic sweep of 'Dancing' will be there when you announce their new co-starring love story. The director is Clarence Brown who guided these two stars to triumph in 'Possessed'. He also directed 'Sadie McKee' and 'Letty Lynton' among many others. In the cast are Otto Kruger, and Stuart Erwin. Hunt Stromberg is showman-producer!

THE BARRETTES OF WIMPOLE STREET

Norma Shearer's popularity, heightened by absence, flamed into box-office brilliance in 'Riptide'... but that was just the beginning. A vehicle that most nearly approximates the tenderness of 'Smilin' Through' is that romance which has given Broadway its most glorious stage thrill of the decade 'The Barretts of Wimpole Street'. Norma Shearer and Fredric March (weren't they incomparable in 'Smilin' Through') are the Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning of the stage hit. Charles Laughlin Academy Prize Winner, star of Henry the VIII, has come from abroad especially for this picture! Sidney Franklin of 'Smilin' Through' fame is the director. Thalberg is producer! What a screen audience awaits this biggest stage hit of 15 years which played Broadway for two solid seasons and presold America with two unbroken years on the road.

MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY

Clark Gable, Wallace Berry, Robert Montgomery, head the pageant of box-office stars who are making an entertainment that will rank at the very top of next season's amusement calendar! The popular appeal of 'Mutiny on the Bounty' is reflected in its long listing as best-seller and its subsequent serial story fame in the Hearst newspapers. Frank Lloyd will direct this mighty romantic spectacle. Thalberg is producer.

NAUGHTY MARIETTA

It has been the privilege of M.G.M. to immortalize famed musical comedies and operettas. Most recently 'Oat and the Fiddle'... and notably next season's 'The Merry Widow'. How fitting that M.G.M. selects 'Victor Herbert's' deathless love songs in 'Naughty Marietta' for the singing star Jeanette MacDonald who with handsome, operatic-favourite Nelson Eddy brings this drama of Old New Orleans to the screen. 'Ah-Sweet Mystery of Life'... and 'I'm Falling in Love With Some One'... typical songs of infinite heart-thrill! Robert Z. Leonard is director. Hunt Stromberg is producer.

MARIE ANTOINETTE

Why did M.G.M. purchase this many-editioned best-seller by Stefan Zweig as a starring vehicle for Norma Shearer? Because no book of recent years gave its public such a soul-thrill! Because this book tells Marie's queenly story with new sympathy... not that of the baby doll queen, but the youthful beauty started at her rightful heritage of love... seeking in profigate grandeur an outlet for heart-hunger... finding romance in one of the deathless detentions of history! Because this book gives Charles Laughton a role equal to his brilliant 'Henry the VIII'... because this book gives Herbert Marshall opportunity for his most appealing charming. There, picture audiences, a production of magnificent unparalleled in talkies! Thalberg is producer.

Particularly bright with personalities is the Star Spangled Banner of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for 1934-35. Not even M.G.M. in all its past glorious years has ever unfurled a banner so brilliant with the stars whom your public eagerly awaits on your screen. Comforting thought to exhibitors in these times is the sturdy record of the Star-Company whose stability over the years is based on an unwavering policy of giving idols to an idol-worshipping nation. These are the times to play safe... and there is only one certain safety in film business. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

JOHN BOLES

In "The Life of Vergie Winters"

Variety is not only the spice of life, but also the vital spark of an actor's career, says John Boles, who is co-starring with Ann Harding in RKO Radio Pictures' 'The Life of Vergie Winters'.

Noted for his splendid singing voice as well as his dramatic ability, Boles has scored hits in a number of musical pictures, and could star continuously in films of that type, should he so desire. 'It's a part that has a little bit to do with the life of a picture,' he said when interviewed on 'The Life of Vergie Winters' set. 'As much as I like singing, I prefer not to do musicals all the time. I would much rather do one of them and follow it with a straight drama, and after that a romantic comedy. I don't believe it is best for an actor to do one sort of thing so consistently that audiences come to know just what to expect of him.'

Boles said that he preferred such roles as the one in his current picture. In the early scenes of the film he portrays a young man, and, as the story progresses, he ages, until in the final scenes he is in his fifties.

'It's a part that has a little bit of everything in the way of characterization," he explained. "As I grow older in real life, I'll want to step into character parts, and a role like this gives me an opportunity to demonstrate what I can do with them, and to gain valuable experience. Also, it is exceptionally rich in romantic and dramatic opportunities. In this acting business, one must always be thinking of the future, as well as of the present. That's why variety is so important."

Versatility and adaptability are two of Boles' most striking characteristics. When he was prepared to enter John Hopkins University to study medicine, the United States entered the World War. So, instead of going to college, he enlisted and was sent to France as a member of the Army Intelligence Corps, with the rank of Lieutenant.

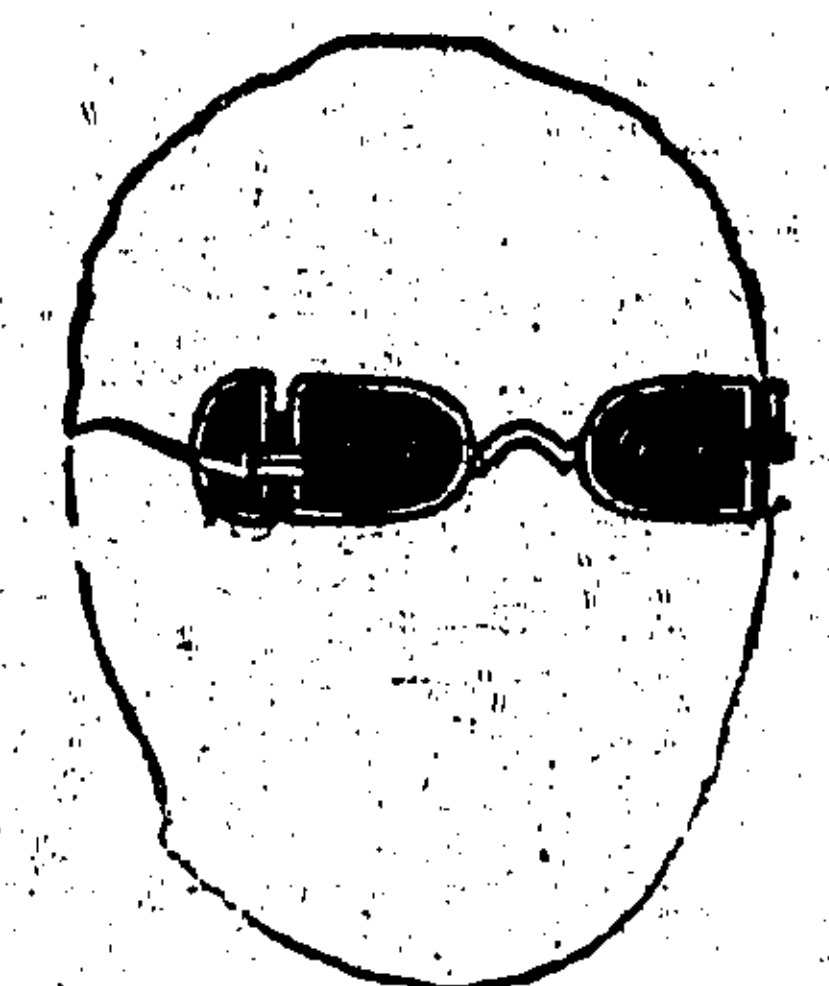

While at the University of Texas, where he had taken a liberal arts course, Boles had been a member of the glee club. Consequently, he was frequently called upon to sing at A.E.F. entertainments in France. On one of these occasions, a noted British musician heard him sing, and persuaded him to give up the idea of becoming a doctor and train his voice.

Boles followed that advice, and after the armistice he studied voice in New York. He made his acting debut in musical comedy, his first role being the lead in 'Little Jesse James,' which was one of the outstanding Broadway hits. From this he went to Hollywood and the films, in which he has been eminently successful.

In 'The Life of Vergie Winters,' he portrays the favourite son of a small town in the Middle West, a brilliant political leader who is involved in a poignant and dramatic romance with the village milliner, portrayed by Miss Harding. The story covers a period of twenty-two years, and depicts the romance through the succeeding stages of sympathetic community interest, subject for gossip, town scandal, and lurid front page sensation.

Helen Vinson, Betty Furness, Frank Albertson, Molly O'Day, Ben Alexander, and Creighton Chaney are others in the cast of hundreds supporting the stars. Alfred Santell directed.

"4 FRIGHTENED PEOPLE"

At The Oriental Theatre

Another bull's eye in entertainment was scored by Cecil B. DeMille in his Paramount picture, "Four Frightened People" which will be showing at the Oriental Theatre to-morrow, Friday, and Saturday.

It features Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall, Mary Boland and William Gargan.

The various jungle backgrounds used in the picture are more startling than anything that Hollywood has ever built.

Through these settings, five characters weave a story of adventure that never lets up in intense interest for one moment. The story deals with four highly-cultured people who are forced to abandon a Dutch steamer. One is a young, prudish school teacher, another a woman's club lecturer, another a blatant newspaper correspondent, and the fourth a "bore" on board, and they manage to escape ashore into a wild section of the Malay Peninsula. In order to reach the nearest seaport, they hire a half caste guide.

Instead of the three day journey through the jungle which they had expected, they become lost for months. The school teacher blossoms into a glorious jungle creature whose word is Law.

BROADWAY BANS NEW MAE WEST FILM

"Spiritualised" By 96 Negro Singers

BY PAUL HOLT.
"Daily Express" Film Correspondent.

Mae West's new film, "It Ain't No Sin," has been banned on Broadway.

The New York State Board of Regents, the censoring body, have demanded such extensive excisions that Paramount are reported to be considering remaking the whole film, a move that will cost them a fortune.

Alteration of many scenes and lines of dialogue will be necessary. It is also suggested that the title should be scrapped.

The news follows close on my disclosures in the "Daily Express" of the efforts made by Hollywood to "clean up" its product.

"It Ain't No Sin" has already withstood a two months siege of criticism. The Hays organisation threatened that, if considerable

ECONOMY IN ENERGY

The Back Crawl Action

Back-Crawl swimmers, women especially, will find it profitable to isolate the arm action from the shoulders.

In the first place independent arm action economises energy, and changes were not made, the film stood a good chance of being banned outright.

Miss West finally answered secondly, isolation prevents the shoulders from rolling and dipping during the underwater pull.

The aim should be to keep the trunk on an even keel. This is easy to do if the arms are lifted into the air without raising the chest, and if the pull is made to a moderate depth.

If the pull is made unnecessarily deep there is a tendency to dip the shoulders.

"BELOVED"

John Boles And Gloria Stuart

"Beloved," the Universal's musical romance of a century, opens an engagement on Friday at the King's Theatre. It is a real musical panoramic review of the past century.

This romantic drama presents John Boles and Gloria Stuart in the leading role, and features Boles in a number of songs of the type which he does best, especially composed for him by Victor Schertzinger, while additional numbers are given by other members of the cast.

"Beloved" follows the career of a man through his lifetime struggles in an effort to compose "the great American symphony" and its constantly changing background covers almost an entire century. In his role Boles is first seen as a baby in Vienna, son of a nobleman who is even then engaged in bustling great music in the consciousness of the child. The scene quickly changes to Virginia before the Civil War, where Boles meets the girl who afterward becomes his wife, the role played by Gloria Stuart.

In swift succession the couple are seen at various stages of their life together, and the backgrounds for dramatic action include New York's Bowery in the '80's and the great city in the years which follow, with the story reaching its conclusion in the year 1933. Melody pervades the dramatic story throughout its length, with the solo songs and symphonic musical score written by Victor Schertzinger, who also directed the picture.

The large cast supporting Boles and Miss Stuart in "Beloved" is of virtually all-star proportions, and includes Dorothy Peterson, Albert Conti, Jimmy Butler, Lucille Gleason, Edmund Breese, Richard Carle, Mae Busch, Holmes Herbert, Anderson Lawler, Mickey Rooney, Ruth Hall and many others.

"MADAME SPY"

Some Elaborate Stage Setting

Maybe you think spying has gone out of fashion. Maybe you think that there are no spies unless countries are at war. Nothing was ever further from the truth. Europe is full of spies, male and female, but the ones who get the most publicity are the "Madame Spies" of the world. In last Monday's papers there was a story headed thus: "Link Woman Spy with British Case."

Strangely as it seems, the story under a European dare line, might readily have been taken as a scenario for Universal's production of "Madame Spy," now playing at the King's Theatre.

This production directed by Karl Freund, features Fay Wray and Nils Asther, with Edward Arnold, John Miljan, Noah Berry, Vice Barnett, David Torrence, Douglas Walton, Oscar Apfel, Robert Ellis, Mabel Marden, Alden Chase and Rollo Lloyd in important roles. Its action fairly flies between Vienna, Berlin, Leningrad and other Continental capitals, and put the production department of Universal on a still hunt for properties which were characteristic and still thoroughly up-to-date. The result is one of the most interesting background displays of Continental life ever placed on the screen. Karl Freund, director, who made "The Last Laugh" abroad, with his familiarity with European customs and manners, was invaluable in staging the production.

"Madame Spy" also dips back into the World War for a number of its scenes. Specially built sets were made, capturing the gay thoroughfares of Vienna, the Grand Ball Room, fanfares of Russian court life, and the World War setting of Underden Linden. One of the outstanding highlights in picture is the Cafe Marabu, with its intimate yet elaborately designed atmosphere. Another touch of real life is the hospital train, with its drab and sordid inmates, personifying the cruel and devastating results of battle.

ANNA STEN
The latest meteor in the Cinema heavens is this exotic Russian beauty whose performance in the U. Artists' production of "NANA" has won her acclaim everywhere. Like most of the new stars of the movies, Anna Sten has had long training on the legitimate stage. She was a child actress in the Russian theatre, and while still in her teens she became a member of the famous Moscow Art Theatre. Previous to her appearance on the American picture screen, she had attracted the attention of Hollywood by the vivid performances in the Russian production of "THE YELLOW TICKET," and the German production of the famous "THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV" and "Tempest" with Emil Jannings. We understand that "NANA" is coming soon to The Colony.

WHY LILIAN HARVEY LEFT HOLLYWOOD

Complaint Of "A Rotten Part"

HOLLYWOOD.
Miss LILIAN HARVEY, the London-born film star, has terminated her contract with Fox Films because:

Her visit here threatens to weaken her European popularity. They again gave her "a rotten part" in her third film, "Serenade."

Mr. Paul Martin, her friend who was engaged to direct the film, has asked to be released from his contract.

By her action Miss Harvey loses a small fortune, but she prefers to lose money rather than be shown in an unfavourable light in the third American film she was due to make for Fox Films.

FILM STAR'S RELIEF

Miss Harvey, who was born in Muswell Hill, North London, expressed only relief at being freed from what she has come to consider as an ill-starred venture.

Her final disagreement with the Fox officials came when the production of "Serenade" started.

"They changed the story so much that I felt it would be impossible for me to continue," Miss Harvey explained. "I asked for my release from my contract, and they gave it."

"Mr. Martin agreed with me that it was a rotten part. As a matter of fact, he turned down the script and suggested a new story, but was over-ruled."

Miss Harvey intends to remain in California for three weeks, packing her household goods and sightseeing.

TO WORK IN GERMANY

"I shall then leave for Germany, where I hope to make films," she said.

The star politely evaded questions about the possibility of her marrying Willy Fritsch, the German film star to whom she has been reported to be engaged to be married.

"Mr. Fritsch does not know what has happened here yet," she explained. "I am cabling him to-day acquainting him with my decision."

In a statement the Fox Corporation briefly announced that Miss Pat. Paterson, the 23-year-old Bradford girl had been selected to replace Miss Harvey.

48-The Robber Menace In HongKong

We regret to state that in our humble opinion the Police force of this Colony has fallen into that effete moribund state which renders it as nearly useless as it is possible for such a body of men to be. The acting Superintendent has lost apparently all the energy which used to distinguish him—the complaints made to him having become legion, he has fallen calous to them, and matters are getting so bad, that the trade of the Colony is suffering. We see no hope of redress. Most householders are paying in the shape of police taxes as much as would disburse one or more watchmen to look exclusively after their premises. The best thing to be done that we can think of is to allow the police to enjoy their present sinecure, to induce the Government to organise a force of watchmen to be hired out at a profit to all applicants which watchmen should be encouraged to hunt down thieves and detect stolen property.

The number of complaints which reach us daily exceed belief. It is not as if there were an occasional burglary and then a lull—nothing of the sort: the place teems with thieves and so bold and determined are they, that on more occasions than one they have attacked one and the same house several times in the same week. In one case we heard of a Chubb's lock being wrenched from a merchant's treasury immediately contiguous to the Central Police Station and the matter being reported, the Inspector on duty was asked where the police on the beat were. He replied that there was but one and he having a very wide circuit could hardly be expected to be of any use. This is in the very heart of the town, and surely if such a system of neglect be allowed, the Government are directly responsible.

Around the Courts

MOTOR DRIVER FINED $50

The fatal motor accident in Queen's Road Central on June 18, when a coolie was injured and subsequently died in hospital was recalled when the driver of car No. 108 was summoned before Mr. Hamilton for having inefficient brakes on the car.

Mr. T. P. K. Kemble, appearing for the driver, submitted that there was no doubt that the man's death was caused by the accident, but the medical evidence was that his death was really caused by the load he was carrying on his back. Mr. Kemble therefore submitted that the driver of the car was rather unlucky. On the point of the inefficiency of the brakes, Mr. Kemble submitted that Sergeant McNelis had stated that a certain portion of the brakes was disconnected. He submitted this was caused by the bump when the car passed over the man. It was incredible that defendant would have driven the car with the brakes in the condition mentioned. Mr. Hamilton fined defendant $50 remarking that if it were for the fact that he was driving at only 15 miles an hour, he might have been held for manslaughter.

It will be recalled that the injured coolie died a month after his admission to hospital. At a subsequent inquest, the jury had returned a verdict of "Accidental Death."

LORRY DRIVERS IN FEUD

Nine Men Bound Over

Nine men were bound over to keep the peace for six months when they appeared before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, yesterday.

The defendants were Leung Hon and Lau Wang, sandalwood makers, who were charged with knowledge of an unlawful assembly; Chan So, rattan maker, and Chan Yun-chun, broom maker, who were charged with possession of eleven hammers and a file for an unlawful purpose; and Mok Wai and Li Yung, sandalwood makers, Chan Wing, rattan maker, and Chan Chan and Wong Hung, lorry drivers, who were charged with unlawful assembly.

Detective Sergeant Fitches said the trouble originated several nights before the defendants were arrested. Lau Wang was assaulted by a lorry driver, and he went to the President of the Chung Shing Guild and made a complaint. The President decided to call on the members of the Lorry Drivers' Guild to get compensation, and a meeting was arranged at the Tak Ming tea house. The President also asked Lau Wang to bring with him some weapons, in case the lorry drivers came in force.

Accordingly, Lau Wang got the hammers and the file from Tak-yun Street. Chan So and Chan Yun-chun were given charge of the weapons, and were placed on the flag. A district watchman saw them there and arrested them. They then took the watchman to Lau Wang and Leung Hon, who were the cause of the trouble, and they in turn took the watchman to the meeting place. The fight had not started then.

Sergeant Fitches asked that all defendants be bound over in substantial bonds.

Mr. Hamilton in binding them over stated that if there was any more trouble he would give each accused six months.

INTERESTING POINT IN DOG SUMMONS

The point as to whether the stairs of a house was a public place was raised at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday when Mr. S. Komor of No. 18 Hillwood Road was summoned for allowing his dog in a public place without a muzzle or a lead. The charge was denied.

Inspector Shaftain said the facts of the case were rather unusual. It was true that the dog was being led by an amah from a chain. While coming down the steps of the flat, the dog bit somebody who was going up. The stairs could not be called a public place, because an unauthorised person found on them at night could be charged with loitering.

His Worship decided that the stairs were not a public place, and dismissed the summons.

Other Cases

Mrs. F. La Fleur, of K.L. 63, Ngau Shi Wan, was fined $5 on each of three summonses for not having licences for her dogs. It was stated that defendant took out the licences immediately after the dogs had been found by Sergeant Pennell.

Mrs. J. J. Richard, of No. 44 Bute Street, was fined $8 for not having a licence for her dog on July 13.

AMATEUR ACTOR SENTENCED

Banished from Hong Kong after being convicted upon several occasions for begging and stealing, a Chinese who was brought before Mr. J. H. Lee yesterday for returning to the Colony, claimed that he had returned without theatrical troupe which had an engagement in Hong Kong. He claimed that the show could not be put on without him.

His Worship: You are indispensable, eh?

Defendant: Oh, yes!

His Worship: I am afraid the show will have to do without you for sometime. I sentence you to one year.

For stealing a basket of clothing valued at $30, a Chinese named Chau Fung, 38, was sentenced by Mr. J. H. Lee at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday to three months' imprisonment.

IN MEMORY OF HINDENBURG

Governor Attends Local Service

The German community in Hong Kong, and representatives from other communities assembled at the Union Church in Kennedy Road where a service in memory of President Hindenburg was held yesterday morning.

Owen Hughes, Lieut-Col. H. L. Murrow, Mr. F. P. Franglin, Mr. F. Kuepels, secretary of the local Nazi Party, and many members of the local German Community.

Rev. Diehl's address. The translation of the address by the Rev. F. Diehl was as follows:—

Dear friends and children of the Fatherland:—Throughout Germany to-day the muffled Church bells are tolling, the bustle and noise of all the work and business have ceased whilst our nation pays its reverent homage on the burial of our great State-President von Hindenburg. Deep mourning fills the heart of our people because of the death of this great man whom God in His mercy and grace gave to our country, to serve at a time of especially dire need and distressing conditions. President von Hindenburg died at his family estate in Neudeck on Friday, August 2, between the hours of 9 and 10 forenoon. He passed in quiet sleep from time to eternity.

The mention of Hindenburg's name acted like magic upon our people, who instantly responded to him. To-day we picture a vast concourse of people in funeral procession wending their way through East Prussia, to Tanenberg, where Field Marshal von Hindenburg won by God's grace the splendid victory over the mighty Russian forces and there his body will be laid to rest. We follow these last rites with vivid imagination and intense emotion. How can we ever forget what the late President von Hindenburg has done for our Fatherland? The grave can never close upon the fact of our national indebtedness to the great saviour of our country, indeed the grave can never bury Hindenburg—he will continue to live in the life of his people. We cannot rightly estimate the true worth of the late President von Hindenburg to our people. He is and ever will be an outstanding example for us in his humility, in his tireless loyalty to duty, in his sincerity of purpose, and in his untiring determination to lead our people and Fatherland out of the horrors of the Great War and the deplorable condition which immediately followed. His unwavering faith in God and his absolute trust in the Lord's ways and guidance cannot fail to impress and influence us in type old age, nearly 87 years old, the Lord blessed him a peaceful passing, and we are indeed thankful that our late beloved President was spared this and painful suffering.

The achievements of Field Marshal President von Hindenburg will be recorded in the history of our Fatherland, thus the generations to come will learn something of the work and service of our illustrious hero. History will glorify his name, and we will glorify his name in the depths of our hearts, with God's help, to follow the example of President von

PROGRESS OF ROTARY IN HONGKONG

Mr. T. B. Wilson Surveys A Satisfactory Year

INTERESTING ATTENDANCE FIGURES

At the Rotary Club meeting yesterday, Mr. A. B. Wilson the Past President of the Club surveyed the activities of Rotary in Hong Kong during the past twelve months. He said that the Club has made steady progress and that the accounts were in a healthy state. "The outstanding accomplishment of the Club," said Mr. Wilson, "has been the very valuable impetus given to the Children's Playgrounds movement. We are still obligated in this respect, and we must not lose our interest just because the association has been formed and is carrying on the good work."

Mr. Wilson thanked all the officers of the Club, particularly the Treasurer, Mr. Perrin.

Mr. M. K. Lo occupied the Chair and at the conclusion of Mr. Wilson's speech, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Rotarian Perrin, who has served as Treasurer for the Club from the time of its inception.

Addressing the meeting, Mr. Wilson said: A year has past since at your request, I took over the gavel, and attempted to conduct the Hongkong Rotary Club through a year of service. A year ago, I was very hesitant about accepting the high honour you wished to confer upon me, for I readily felt that there were others among you who were much better qualified than I to occupy the chair, but even at that time, after the Club had been in existence for more than two years, I knew how hesitant most of you are to get on your feet before the crowd. Now, after a year of trying to induce most of you to get on your feet to move a vote of thanks to a speaker, I realize even more that the average Rotarian of Hongkong is a most bashful specimen of the genus homo, and that the best qualified man for the job is not always the man who must take the job. I was very fortunate in having had two such able organizers and leaders as Past Presidents, and I have enjoyed the very heavy manner in which they have come to my assistance in every instance when I called on them during the year. I was also very fortunate in having such able and willing workers as my co-officers, directors and Committee-men.

You have, in my humble opinion, very wisely chosen your new President. He is a capable, willing, and a hard worker, and I look forward to a highly successful year for our Club under his able guidance. (Applause.)

I could mention every officer and director, and could say something complimentary about each but I will save them the embarrassment of your applause. I will mention only one more. You have had as one of your officers from the very beginning of the Club a man who is deserving of your sincere thanks for his tireless care of one of the most important jobs in the Club and yet one of the most thankless jobs. I speak of Rotarian Perrin, your Treasurer. (Applause.) I am going to take this opportunity of asking you to all make a resolution here and now that you will lighten his burden during the coming year by paying promptly any accounts you have with the Club. (Laughter.)—but I must get on with my story, if any.

Hindenburg in our service of the Fatherland. We cannot help with sorrowful and grateful hearts to the God who gave him to us and say "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth." Yes, said the spirit, for they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.

Social Service
I want to try to briefly review the past year of the Rotary Club's activities. You will perhaps remember that just about a year ago, Rotarian M. K. Lo gave us a very illuminating address concerning the Tung Wah Hospital, and at that time proposed a complete survey of the social service situation in the Colony. Your Directors considered the possibility of making such a survey by the Rotary Club. A start was made in this direction but it was soon realized that to do the job properly it would require more time, money, and energy than were available. Some progress was made, but I am sorry to say the job was never finished.

I still believe such a survey would be of great value to the community and I hope that some day it can be made. An effort was made to find some means of offering social service within our means and a scheme of conducting picnics and beach parties for the children inmates of various institutions and other unfortunate was adopted. The scheme did not get under way until nearly the end of the summer, but we have already started this summer's campaign and hope that the Rotary Club is going to be the means of bringing unexpected happiness to a number of Hongkong's less fortunate children. You have on one or two occasions been called upon to make spontaneous and voluntary donations. The response has always been remarkably generous.

Ladies Days
When I took office I was hoping to see regular Ladies Days on our programmes. I was worried by some of the members that it would be dangerous to suggest it. You know the result! We have had Ladies Days, and if the attendance is any indication, I can safely say that these Ladies Days were a decided success. Personally, I hope they will be continued and that the Club will be able to have at least a Ladies Meeting during the Rotary Year.

Before taking this seat at the head of the table I used to marvel at the persistence of some members in wishing to sit with the same people every Tuesday. I worried about it for a while. Various efforts were made to break up little regular parties and to get the members to mix more generally. During the year this has been done, and I honestly believe that we all know each other better than we did a year ago. To me it appears that there is a much stronger feeling of fellowship in the Club than there was at the time we started, more than

VERDICT OF SUICIDE RETURNED

Inquiry Into Death Of Mr. W. L. Plew

The tragic death of Mr. William Lewis Plew on July 19 when he jumped from the eighth floor of the Gloucester Building was recalled at Central Magistracy yesterday when a Coroner's inquiry was held into the circumstances surrounding his death.

Mr. Q.A.A. MacFadyen conducted the inquiry, assisted by a jury comprised of Messrs. Chang Tse Yu (foreman), Lam Siu Man and Ng Chi Wan.

A verdict of "Suicide" was returned by the jury who recommended that iron spikes be fixed on the top of the side wall of Gloucester Building and that a fan-shaped iron barrier be placed on the corner of the front parapet and the side wall.

Dr. L. D. Fringle, medical officer in charge of the Victoria Mortuary, said that on July 20 at about 9.30 a.m. he performed a post-mortem examination on the body of Mr. W. L. Plew. The body which was identified by Mr. F. M. el Arculli and a Chinese "boy" from the Gloucester Building, was that of a British male, aged about 38. The skull was very extensively fractured and all the ribs on both sides of the chest were also fractured. The majority of the organs of the chest and abdomen were lacerated. There was a fracture of the spine. The bones of the right shoulder, the right elbow and the right ankle were fractured. All the internal organs with the exception of the heart, which had undergone some fatty degeneration, were healthy. The cause of death was multiple injuries. The injuries were consistent with the deceased having fallen from a height. Death must have been instantaneous.

An Intimate Friend

An intimate friend of the deceased, Mr. A. J. Palmer, of the Union Insurance Society of Canton, testified that he had known the deceased casually for about four years and intimately for the last two years. Deceased was formerly night editor of the "Daily Press." He remained in that position till the middle of May. He was then unemployed, and witness lost sight of him till June 7 when deceased came to his office. He had a fracture of some sort in his ankle, and witness took him to the Matilda Hospital. He was aware that one week later, his wife left him. Witness saw deceased occasionally at the hospital, during which time he had asked him to post some letters. On the day of his discharge, June 11, deceased called on him in his office and they had a conversation on general subjects. Deceased told witness that he was going to keep off drinking and try to get a job. He asked if witness was sure that he had posted the letters.

The next time witness saw deceased was on July 18, the day before his death. He looked quite healthy and contented but witness thought he had been drinking. Before he left the hospital he looked quite fit but on that day there was a very marked alteration in his appearance. Witness knew deceased was a heavy drinker. They had a talk on general subjects, and witness suggested that he should live at the Y.M.C.A. because he thought deceased had not got very much money. Deceased enquired again if witness had posted the letters. He was looking for work but he had not got any. He did not appear to be unduly depressed by the difficulty of getting work. He told witness that he had been living in Hotel Cecil, and that he was going to live in Happy Valley with a friend named Thomas whom he met while in the Matilda Hospital.

Perfectly Normal

Later in the same day, they met again in Pedder Street, and deceased asked him to cash a cheque. He did not mention the amount. Witness could do so, however, as it was then five minutes past five.

In reply to the Coroner, Mr. Palmer said that deceased was not of a sort of jovial temperament but he was also not mentally depressed. "He was perfectly normal even when I told him I cannot cash his cheque," witness added.

Continuing, Mr. Palmer said that he would not say that deceased was much depressed by his wife leaving him as he had expected it for some time. He was depressed because he had no money and of his difficulty in finding work.

Questioned as regards the letters, Mr. Palmer said that he was rather embarrassed when deceased asked him again and again if he had posted them, as deceased probably thought he had been careless.

There was no doubt that deceased was expecting a reply from the letters which were addressed to Mr. F. Flew, Craigmont, Peebles.

Mr. F. M. el Arculli, a member of the Hongkong Daily Press staff, told the Court that he first knew deceased about ten years ago. He then lost sight of him altogether for some years, and he met him again when he joined the "Hongkong Daily Press." It was early in 1930. He joined as a night editor.

In reply to the Coroner, witness said that he knew deceased as a very nice fellow when he was sober. He was very partial to drink. He remained with "Daily Press" till about the end of May this year. He was given three months' notice to leave his post, but he asked for a chance to stay on. Witness was told both by his employer and the deceased himself about this. Deceased was definitely given a chance to remain on the understanding that he would do his work properly, that meant regular hours in the office. Witness was told by deceased that he "refused" to be treated like a schoolboy, and asked him to type a letter for him to the managing director stating that he could not remain under those circumstances. His notice expired on May 30, but he actually left before that as he turned out to work one night and proved very incapable, and witness had to take over his work from him at one o'clock in the morning. Deceased was given his cheque the next day and was told that his services were no longer required.

Mental Condition Good

Mr. Arculli then went on to say that he saw deceased only since he left the "Daily Press." That was about ten days after his dismissal. Witness was working in the office at the time when deceased telephoned and said he wanted to see him urgently. Ten minutes later deceased came round to the office. He appeared to be under the influence of drink and informed witness that he had no money and had to sell some of his furniture. He also said that his wife had left him and that he was going to get a divorce.

Coroner: Did he appear to be depressed?

Witness: He was actually very drunk. I could not make out whether he was depressed or not.

Continuing, witness said that he did not see deceased again until the day before the tragedy. Witness did not speak to him as he saw him from a distance. He thought deceased was looking better than he had been for a long time.

In his sober moment, deceased's mental condition was absolutely perfect.

Mr. Arculli concluded his evidence by saying that he subsequently identified the body at the mortuary.

Booked A Room

A room boy employed at the Gloucester, Wong Kwong, testified that at about 11 p.m. on July 18, deceased booked a room on the sixth floor, and about half an hour later ordered a whisky and soda. He gave instructions to witness that he was to be wakened at 8.30 the next morning. Deceased, however, was not in his room when that time arrived.

In reply to the jury, witness said that deceased was not under the influence of drink when he first came to the Gloucester.

The last person who saw the deceased alive, Wong Hung, a dining room boy, employed at the same building, stated that on the day of the tragedy, he came on duty sometime after 7 a.m. At about 8 a.m. he saw a European man sitting on a chair in the corner, reading a newspaper. He had a rather dark complexion. When he saw witness he ordered him to get a "gin and tonic." Witness did

ROTARIANS PAY TRIBUTE

To Memory Of President Von Hindenburg

At the meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday, Rotarians stood up in silence for a minute as a tribute to the memory of the late President von Hindenburg.

Addressing the meeting, the Chairman, Mr. M. K. Lo, said: The death of President von Hindenburg is universally mourned. By his death, Germany has lost one of her greatest statesmen and the world has lost a man of incalculable influence for good, a very fine steady force. One of the objects of Rotary, namely, "Service before self" is most strikingly and happily exemplified in the person of the late President of Germany. I ask you now to stand in silence for a moment in his memory.

so and then presented him a bill which deceased did not sign, asking him to wait. About twenty minutes later, witness again presented the bill but deceased again told him to wait at the same time ordering another gin and tonic.

After this had been done, witness again tendered the bill but met with the same reply. Later deceased went to the lavatory. When he came out he ordered another gin and tonic and also a packet of "Captain" cigarettes. The bill was again tendered but deceased again made the same reply. Deceased remained there for some time, reading the newspaper and smoking cigarettes. He appeared to be normal.

Witness was later called away from the place by the No. 1 boy to go and get a table cloth. When he returned the deceased was not there. The matter was at once reported to the No. 1 boy as witness was under the impression, at the time that deceased had left the building and did not pay for his drinks. There was no one in the verandah as it was just after breakfast time. The last time he saw deceased was shortly after 9.30 a.m. He subsequently identified the deceased at the mortuary.

Detective-Sergeant T. Hemsley said that at about 10.15 on the morning of the tragedy he went with Inspector J. Murphy to Des Voeux Road and there saw a European male lying at the junction of an alleyway between Exchange Building and the Gloucester.

Enquiries were subsequently made and it was found that deceased had jumped from the eighth floor of Gloucester Building. The body was then taken in a sanitary box to the Central Police Station where it was searched and a letter was found in one of the pockets. The letter was addressed to Mrs. Flew. (The letter states "Please forgive me. I want to be cremated and my ashes sent to you." W. L. Flew.)

Inspector J. Murphy then handed the Coroner a letter received by the bank from deceased's parents.

The Coroner informed the jury that that there was no evidence contained in the letter apart from the fact that the deceased had applied for financial assistance from his father. It contained a money order from his father to be given to him so much a month.

The Coroner then suggested that the jury should visit the scene of the tragedy before returning their verdict so that might make some recommendations.

After the visit, the jury returned a verdict of "Suicide" but there is no evidence as to the state of his mind. They also recommended that, if possible, the side wall should have iron spikes fixed on the top and that an iron barrier (fan shaped) be placed on the corner of the front parapet and the side wall.

REFRIGERATION COSTS

The discovery of an ingenious method of measuring the amount of heat leakage into and from the hold of a refrigerated ship has resulted from tests which have been carried out at the work of the National Physical Laboratory at Teddington. Although details are not yet made known, one result of the tests made for this purpose is that it has been found possible to reduce by as much as 10 per cent the amount of power required to keep the cargo cool, which alone will represent a considerable saving in the costs of refrigerated shipments.

PROGRESS OF ROTARY IN HONGKONG

three years ago—or than there was even a year ago. That, if what I think is true, is an excellent sign of progress. I do not mean that I think we must call each other John or Bill. That movement will take care of itself, and whether or not the practice is ever adopted, the Club will continue to progress in the matter of developing better acquaintance and better fellowship.

Knowing Each Other

A year ago I knew most of you by sight, and most of you knew me by sight and knew the name, know for whom you work, and I of the firm I represent. To-day I think I know all of you by name, know that you are interested in the Club and in the community; and all of you know me by name and you know that I, like yourselves, have the interest of the Club and the community at heart. I would like again to emphasize, however, that there is more to being a Rotarian than merely attending meetings. Listening to speakers and lending a friendly ear to suggestions for aiding various causes. I am not here to-day being remarkably generous to lecture you on the ideals of the Rotary movement. I think we all have a pretty general idea of what it is all about. I will say, however, that I believe too many of us are too willing to sit back and let the other fellow do the job. As time goes on, I fully expect to see many of our present shrinking violets blossom forth into glorious sunflowers. We are not all of us brilliant public speakers but it would not hurt any of us to get on our feet before our fellow Club members, who we all know so well, and whom we gather weekly to at least express the Club's thanks to a speaker who has kindly given up his time and effort toward entertaining us particularly if that speaker is not one of our members. But there are many other ways also of helping the Club and the community at large. While on this subject I want to say that, like my predecessors in office, I don't intend leaving office and merely sit back as a member, but like them I hold myself at your disposal at all times to be of whatever assistance I can.

The accounts of the Club are in good shape. There are no outstanding debts. This is a good indication of the healthy condition of the Club.

During the year a dinner dance was held, and those who attended are all in favour of making it an annual affair.

Attendance Now Better

Attendance a year ago was, to put it mildly, not so good, particularly during the summer months. I am very happy to say it is much better now. That, to me, is a sure indication that we are making progress. However, there is still much room for improvement. In looking over the records for the first six months of 1934 I found some very interesting figures. The total membership of the Club has kept steadily around 96. There have at all times been some members away on long leave. There are at present 14 members on long leave and a few out of town on short leave. Of all members who were available for attendance during all or part of the 6 months' period, totalling 86 members, the records show a total attendance of 6,051, or an average per member of 70 per cent. However, I would refer you to our constitution, Section 7, Clause B, which reads as follows:— "Membership of any active member, continuously in the city and in health, whose percentage of attendance is less than 60 per cent. during the first or second 6 months' period of the Club's fiscal year, shall automatically terminate, unless he is excused by the Board of Directors for good and sufficient reason."

That, of course, refers to individuals. From the above figures, and taking the club as an individual, we can safely say that we comply with our constitution.

The average percentage of attendance would have been much higher were it not for the fact that some members showed very poor interest. One member attended only 8 per cent. of the meetings, 2 between 20 and 30 per cent.; 3 between 40 and 50 per cent.; 5 between 60 and 80 per cent.; and 14 between 80 and 90 per cent. In other words, 29 per cent. of the members, during the first six months of this year, were not enough interested in the Club to attend 60 per cent. of the meetings, or 3 out of five meetings. The figures for those who came within the requirements of the constitution are as follows:—15 members attended between 60 and 70 per cent.; 13 attended between 70 and 80 per cent.; 14 attended between 80 and 90 per cent.; 12 attended between 90 and 99 per cent.; and 7 attended between 100 per cent. (Applause).

However, looking at these figures, does not give us exactly the correct picture of the 12 members who attended more than 90 per cent. of the meetings. I would like to say that I feel sure some of those showing attendance of 90 per cent., having been absent from one meeting only without excuse, are due to their having thoughtlessly forgotten to remind the Honorary Secretary that they were going to be out of town or other wise unavoidably absent. In my analysis of the attendance I would say we class those for 95 per cent. with those showing 100 per cent. attendance and we will have to improve the astonishing figure of 15 members, or 17 per cent. who were interested enough to attend at least 95 per cent. of the meetings. There were only 11 members who attended less than 50 per cent. of the meetings.

Children's Play Lands

There is much more I would like to say about the years just passed, but I prefer to look to the future. Our experiences in our three years of existence should help us greatly in building for the future. The outstanding accomplishment of the Club so far has been the very valuable impetus given the Children's Playgrounds movement. We are still obligated in this respect, and we must not lose our interest just because the association has been formed and is carrying on the good work. We still have a financial obligation for this year and we have a moral obligation for the future. Every Rotarian should take pride and personal interest in the Children's Playgrounds. Now we should be looking for another outlet for our energies. What are we going to do next to justify our claim to being interested in community service? I hope to see our motto—"Service Above Self" justified by some real progressive service supported wholeheartedly by the united efforts of the members. In looking back over the year I cannot help but feel that on the whole the Club has made progress. There are a number of things I had hoped to see brought about but I was a bit too optimistic. However, I am sure they will come later.

Rome Was Not Built In A Day,

And the Rotary International of to-day was not born many years ago.

Rotarian Hill on behalf of members of the Rotary Club proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Wilson for his address.

REPULSE BAY LAND

Intentions Of Crown Lot Buyer

At the offices of the Public Works Department yesterday afternoon, a plot of Crown Land at Hong Kong, registered as Rural Building Lot No. 380, was put up for public auction, the upset price being based at twenty cents a square foot.

During the proceedings, there was only one bidder, who at last secured the lot at the upset price of $3,440.

The land has an area of about 17,200 square feet and its annual rental is $195. It is situated at Repulse Bay Road in the Colony of Hong Kong.

The lot is to be held from the Crown for a term of 75 years with the option of renewal for a further period of 75 years.

Special enquiries from the purchaser elicited the news that the new owner, Mr. A. H. Compton, manager of David Sassoon & Co., Ltd., declared that they intend to use the site for the erection of a latest, private residence of European type with a small garden at the back of the house, but that they were informed, however, that their detailed plans have not yet been finally decided upon.

Mr. E. B. Reed, Superintendent of Crown Lands and Surveys conducted the sale.

PENSION RIGHTS

Included on the agenda of the 1934 Session of the International Labour Conference was the maintenance of acquired rights and rights in the course of accumulation under invalidity, old-age and widows and orphans insurance on behalf of workers who transfer their residence from one country to another. There was some discussion on general lines of an international agreement at this Session and the hope was expressed that it will be possible to draw up an International Convention, embodying the scheme.

GARDENER IN SERIOUS WAY

Alleged Poisoning By Wife

Suffering from the effects of food poisoning, alleged to be the result of an act by his wife and another man, a vegetable gardener named Chik Wing residing at an unnumbered hut in Tai Hom Village, Kowloon City, was admitted to the Kwong Wah Hospital on Monday night in a serious condition.

According to a police report received last night, the poison was alleged to have been administered by the gardener's wife, Ko Kam Yung, and Po Cho Hing who was employed as a gardener by her husband, who is suspected to have been on terms of intimacy with the woman. Both of them have been arrested and charged. So serious was the victim's condition that his dying deposition had been taken, the details of which have been divulged.

NEW WORLD RECORDS

Oslo, Aug. 6. Ben Eastman, American flash, shattered the world's record for 500 metres. He covered the distance in 1 minute 2 seconds, while Percy Beard, also of America, set a new mark for the 110 metres hurdles, clocking 14-1/5 seconds.—Reuter.

up an International Convention, embodying the scheme.

The laws of some countries suspend or reduce the pension of a worker who leaves the country after the pension has been awarded. As far as this aspect of the problem is concerned, the purpose of the proposed international agreement is to ensure that a pensioner shall retain his full pension irrespective of his country of residence. The second aspect of the problem is how to ensure that a worker transferring his residence from one country to another shall be credited with the contributions paid in both countries, and that time spent in insurance in the home country shall count towards the fulfilment of the qualifying period in the new country. This has been done to some extent already by the conclusion of bilateral treaties between States. The object of the proposed international agreement is to generalise the provisions of the bilateral treaties.

The Imperial Conferences of 1926 and 1930 examined the problem of the maintenance of pension rights within the British Commonwealth. In view of the manifold divergences of the various non-contributory pension schemes, no standard reciprocal scheme could be devised. The various Governments, however, were recommended to make bilateral arrangements with regard to the method of reckoning the qualifying period of residence, fixing the rate of pension and the pensionable age where migrants were concerned. The legislation of Great Britain already enables reciprocal arrangements to be made with another member of the Commonwealth having similar legislation by which periods of insurance contributions paid and residence in the country shall count for the purpose of qualification in the other, and whereby pensions payable by one country shall be payable to persons whilst resident in the other country. Pending the introduction into other parts of the Commonwealth of pension insurance schemes in respect of which reciprocal arrangements can be made, the Government of Great Britain continues to pay the pensions of pensioners under its law who go to any part of the Empire, while those who are not qualified for pension may continue their insurance on a voluntary basis after their arrival overseas.

RADICAL-SOCIALIST COUNTER-MOVE

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Paris, Aug. 6. In an attempt to counterbalance the new united front of the Socialist and Communist parties, a movement is now afoot in Radical-Socialist circles to create a powerful bloc of moderate bourgeois groups which besides the Radical-Socialists, would embrace all centre groups and possibly extend even to the Tradien group.

The Radical Socialist organ "Le Republique" considers the plan offers the best means of preventing the Radical-Socialist party from disintegrating and from being gradually absorbed by the neighbouring groups. Herriot's "Republique" is more optimistic, maintaining that the realisation of a united Marxist front will probably cause a split in the Socialist ranks, thus rendering the possible inclusion of even the Socialist Party's Right Wing in the proposed centre bloc. The paper adds "It is now up to the centre groups whether to want an ally themselves with the Nationalists, or whether they prefer to march jointly with the Radical-Socialists and moderate Socialists as in the times of the Waldeck-Rousseau cabinet."

TRIBESMEN ATTACK MALAKAND

Anti-British Agitator At The Head

Simla, Aug. 7. The notorious anti-British agitator Fakir of Allagar, whose ambition is to invade British territory, led two hundred tribesmen into Malakand during the week-end killing one and wounding eight persons. Effective resistance was put up by the British officer at Malakand and levies from entrenched positions, ending in the invaders retiring.

The enemy fired on a reconnoitring plane which replied, causing a number of casualties.

Further moves are expected as in the Fakir's last exploit of 1932 when he raised a force to attack the British post, but the attempt was foiled owing to the friendly chief destroying a bridge over which it was necessary to pass.—Reuter.

CRAZY DAYS OF 1929

Scenes On Stock Exchange

Chicago, Aug. 7. Scenes reminiscent of the crazy days of 1929 on the New York Stock Exchange were enacted in the grain pits. Reports of a fresh heat wave approaching the corn belt, coupled with advices of sharp rises in prices from Rotterdam and Buenos Aires sent prices of all grains soaring.

Buyers, many with foreign connections, tumbled over themselves to buy while prices changed rapidly in upward movement towards new seasonal high levels.

After a visit to Illinois, Iowa, the local crop expert reported that corn deteriorated rapidly in the last few days. It is opined that the season's crop would be scarcely 75 per cent. of the amount consumed past season. The expert added that the situation was nothing short of a calamity.—Reuter.

S. M. RAILWAY SABOTAGE

Many Arrests In Harbin

Dairen, Aug. 7. The Police announce that five workmen in the huge South Manchuria Railway Company's railway shop here were arrested on Sunday for an alleged sabotage plot within the plant. Twenty-five others were involved.

Various destructive contraptions were seized.—Reuter.

TAXES IN RUSSIA

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Moscow, Aug. 6. The remaining individual farmers in Soviet Russia were saddled with nearly a fifty per cent. increase in tax burdens by a decree issued on Monday by the Council of Peoples and Commissaries.

By the provisions of the new law, farm operators who are outside the "collectives" and have the extent of annual plantings fixed by a Government Committee, are required to deliver an amount of grain per planted acre exactly fifty per cent. greater than that levied on collective farms. Either to the assessment of unorganised farmer was only ten to twenty per cent. higher than their collectivized comrades.

The same decree turns the screw even tighter on the individual farmer by suddenly levying on "extra plantings" which was hitherto free from State assessment—a produce tax equal to half of the entire yield.—Transocean Kuo Min.

FARNES TAKES FRENCH LEAVE

Loses Job To See Cricket Match

Kenneth Farnes, the Essex and England fast bowler, once lost a job through being too keen on cricket. It happened like this. In 1930, when the Australians were over here, Farnes badly wanted to see them play Essex, and as it was a half-week match he promptly took "French leave" from the bank where he was employed. And two days later, when he returned to work, he was politely informed that he could take "French leave" for observation.

"Be Faithful Unto Death"

Field Marshal von Hindenburg, the hero of Tannenberg and a personality held in the utmost reverence by the German people, made his last journey from his estate at Neudeck to the Tannenberg memorial where an impressive ceremony was conducted as befitting the end of a great man.

It was revealed that the late Field Marshal had specified in his will that he desired no self-glorification at his funeral and that the dead in the Great War should be remembered.

Tannenberg, August 7. The famous memorial here is a massive octagonal walled enclosure with eight pillars set at angles, erected to mark the Field Marshal's victory over invading Russian armies. His body was received by the military escort and accompanied in a slow march to the Court of Honour within the memorial where it will be placed on a bier before the altar and crucifix. Hitler will deliver the funeral oration here.

Hindenburg's last journey from Neudeck to here last night was given the character of a triumphal march. The nocturnal cortege making its way from Neudeck to the monument between two long lines of flickering torches was without parallel in the history of the German army. A short farewell service at Neudeck was held last night attended by members of his family only and after benediction was pronounced the Reichswehr took charge of the body which was placed on a gun carriage in the dead of night and transferred here between lines of a guard of honour from Hindenburg's own battalions. Near Froedenu on the summit of the hill from which the dead commander directed the encirclement of the Russian army, the funeral procession made a two-minute halt.

The Fuehrer arrived in East Prussia yesterday afternoon in his airplane. General Goering who had flown from Berlin to Neudeck placed a large wreath with a black, white and red bow on Hindenburg's coffin. At yesterday's memorial service in the Reichstag Vice Chancellor von Papen and the German Crown Prince in Hussar uniform were present. Both arrived here this morning. All the Berlin shops and banks will be closed to-day during the funeral ceremonies.—Transocean Kuo Min.

FULL TEXT OF SPEECH
(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 7, 7:30 p.m.)

Tannenberg, August 7. The following is the full text of the Reichschancellor's speech at the burial service of Hindenburg on Tuesday, an abbreviated form of which was given by Transocean in the first noon service.

"Herr and Frau Colonel von Hindenburg, honoured fellow mourners, generals, officers and soldiers of the Reich's defence force, twice in his life as is the rule of every great soldier publicly honoured alone after a victory and after his death. When the name of the General Field Marshal and the Reichschancellor resounded for the first time through the German people, a long life full of struggle and work lay behind him. As a young officer, he fought at the age of 17 on the battlefield of Koenigsgratz and received his first baptismal wound. Four years later he was an eye-witness of the proclamation of his King as the German Emperor. In the following years he worked in forming forces of newly-founded German empire.

IN PEACE AND WAR

When as commanding general von Hindenburg he took to retirement on March 18, 1911 he looked back on his closed career of Prussian officer on active service and peacetime duty. In never failing discharge of duty he had helped just as in storm of battle so in immeasurable work of training and preparing an army during times of peace. Nevertheless the name of Hindenburg was just as unknown among the masses of German people as that of innumerable other officers. When four and a half years later the German people heard the name of General Paul von Hindenburg for the first time, the world war was raging over Europe. In the hour of direst need, the Kaiser recalled his general from retirement and gave him the command of the army in East Prussia. Six days later, cannons were booming in the lovely East Prussian land. In three days more church bells were ringing—the battle of Tannenberg had been won. One beloved German province had been saved from devastation and millions of people filled with gratitude uttered the name of the great commander who with his helpers had profited this miraculous rescue.

LIFE OF STRUGGLE

Thus, his lifetime was full of unparalleled struggle. Crisis followed crisis. Hope was alienated with despondency and confidence with despair. Again and again the nation rose to its feet. In the faithful discharge of duty, millions went about in their work. For the next hundred years, it would not be necessary for the German people to redeem its honour. Never have the soldiers been more brave, more preserving and more self-sacrificing than in that four and a half years. A miracle of achievements incomprehensible unless the power of personality weighed and measured. In the name of the General Field Marshal lay power and magic that humbled the might of Russia, at that time the greatest military power. Sudden but unfortunately too late, the Kaiser gave him the command of the entire German army, Hindenburg succeeded in averting an acute crisis for the moment and stifled the German resistance for another two years marked by unparalleled victories. Even the tragic end of this titanic struggle involves no historical blemish on the career of the great soldier but solely condemnation of politicians. When resistance at home collapsed, the leader again retired.

THE LAST TRIUMPH

His name is written for ever in the book of world history. It is the last triumph of the old army that National Germany of 1925 could no and any better representative than the soldier and General Field Marshal of the world war. He it was who inspired the uprising of the German people and who opened the door for the national regeneration.

As Reichschancellor, the General Field Marshal was the patron of national revolution and the rebirth of our nation. Twenty years ago from this very place the church bells throughout all Germany rang out the name of the Field Marshal. To-day to the sound of the same bells the nation honours the Field Marshal on the spot of his unique victory where in the midst of the slumbering grenadiers of his victorious regiments he finds his last rest. But the German people will never forget its dead hero.

When the Fuehrer had finished speaking, the whole assembled concourse of mourners sang Hindenburg's favourite hymn "Once I had a comrade."—Transocean Kuo Min.

"BE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH"
(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 7, 7:30 p.m.)

Tannenberg, August 2. Shortly before 11 o'clock Hitler appeared. The whole assembled company of over 4,000 inside the Hindenburg memorial and the immense crowd more than ten times the numerical strength in the stadium adjoining, rose in greeting. Drums began to beat. Slowly the sarcophagus proceeded by the Marshal's baton borne on a velvet cushion, was carried from the "Tower of Generals" and set down in the centre of the court of honour. Generals and Admirals stood with drawn swords. Slowly but impressively the strains of Beethoven's "Eroica" held the hearers in its spell.

The official clergyman, Field Chaplain Dohrmann chose as his text "Be faithful unto death and I shall give thee a crown of life." The preacher said this should be regarded as Hindenburg's last admonition to the German people and the army.

HINDENBURG'S WISHES

Hindenburg himself, said the preacher, had once exclaimed "I have done nothing, else but make use of the gifts which God gave me—to praise and to approve is alone the grace of God." The preacher emphasised that it was the express wish of the deceased that in funeral service held for him, special mention should be made of those who fell in the Great War. Another wish expressed with great emphasis had been "I wish no praise making speeches."

Hitler then delivered his message to the German people. This was followed by the Lord's prayer, benediction and finally the hymn sung by the whole assemblage "Ein Feste Burg ist Unser Gott" that is "The mighty fortress is our God."—Transocean Kuo Min.

BAPTISTS' REQUEST

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press") (Copyright.)

Berlin, August 7. At the request of the World Baptist alliance which is holding an international conference here this week, the state funeral ceremonies for Hindenburg at Tannenberg on Tuesday will be broadcast in the huge auditorium of Berlin's exhibition hall in which the congress is assembling daily. The general public are cordially invited to attend.—Transocean Kuo Min.

LAD TO REST

Tannenberg, Aug. 7. On the lonely plains of East Prussia, after an impressive and elaborate ceremonial, Hindenburg was laid to rest in the Field Marshal's tower in the huge brick memorial to his decisive victory at Tannenberg.

The bier arrived at dawn after a night-long journey amid the roar of drums and illumined by giant flares from the four memorial towers. The coffin was placed in the catafalque in the courtyard facing the forty foot cross. Stands had been placed for the distinguished mourners, Chancellor Hitler, Colonel Hindenburg, ministers, diplomats and members of the Reichstag.

Veterans carried the colours of the Tannenberg Regiments, while the deceased Field Marshal's baton and war medals were placed in front of the coffin. Around was a vast throng of two hundred thousand persons from all parts of Germany who followed the ceremony by means of loudspeakers.—Reuter.

THE CEREMONY

Tannenberg, Aug. 7. The band opened the ceremony with the funeral march of Beethoven's Third Symphony. Then Bishop Dohrmann, Chaplain General of the Reichswehr, preached on the text "Be thou faithful unto death," which he revealed Hindenburg had stipulated in his will, adding that Hindenburg did not desire any eulogies or glorification of himself during the funeral, but only remembrance of those who had fallen in the war. Bishop Dohrmann declared that Hindenburg's sole care and anxiety was the rebirth of Germany.

After a brief sermon followed the Lord's Prayer and Luther's famous hymn "Ein Feste Burg" in which the huge throng of mourners joined.—Reuter.

FUNERAL ADDRESS

Tannenberg, Aug. 7. Chancellor Hitler gave the funeral address. He declared that as a result of the victory at Tannenberg, Germany's millions were grateful to Hindenburg. Never were soldiers braver or more persevering than the Germans during the Great War. Its tragic end was no reproach to Hindenburg but condemnation of the politicians.

He added it was the final triumph of the old army that in 1925 nationalistic Germany could find no better representative than Hindenburg.

As President he became the protector of the National-Socialist revolution and thus the protector of the nation's resurrection. Chancellor Hitler's speech was followed by the military song "I had a comrade."—Reuter.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES

Berlin, Aug. 7. Most impressive scenes were witnessed yesterday as the body of the late President of Germany, Field-Marshal Paul von Hindenburg, was borne from Neudeck to Tannenberg for burial. To the roll of muffled drums in the flickering glare of torches held aloft, the coffin was carried out from Neudeck Castle by four officers of the East Prussian Regiment.

Behind the coffin, impressive as a statue, walked President von Hindenburg's son, with his wife and the Field-Marshal's two daughters and their husbands.

As the coffin was placed on the catafalque, a mixed choir from the village church rendered "The Power of Love," and the vicar spoke a few prayers. The coffin was placed on a gun-carriage the funeral cortege, formed by detachments from all troops, following at a slow march through the lines of torch-bearing mourners as far as Deutscheylau, where the coffin was transferred to a motor-hearse.

Accompanied by a motor detachment of troops and police, the hearse continued for 50 miles to Tannenberg, arriving at 4 a.m. today. The cortege halted briefly at Froedenu from where the late President, with his staff, directed the famous Battle of Tannenberg.—Reuter.

FLORAL TRIBUTES

Berlin, Aug. 7. Floral tributes from all parts of the world were received in Berlin yesterday to be placed on the grave of President Paul von Hindenburg.

A wreath of white dahlias and carnations was sent by His Majesty King George, bearing the inscription, George, R.I., while a wreath of laurels, with rare exotic orchids, bearing a red and white inscribed ribbon, was sent by the Emperor of Japan.

China's token was a wreath of asters and white carnations, with blue and white ribbons, with the inscription, Republique de Chine, in gold letters.—Reuter.

"THE GLORIOUS DEAD"

A Mystery Of The Cenotaph

This is the story of a mystery concerning the Cenotaph in Whitehall—a mystery which is as intriguing as it is astonishing.

During the fifteen years that have elapsed since the signing of the Peace Treaty at Versailles countless millions have looked on the Cenotaph and read the words, "The Glorious Dead."

Yet, amazing though it seems, no one apparently knows how these words, which have inspired the nation, came to be inscribed, or who conceived the idea.

The Cenotaph came into being more or less as an accident. Its original purpose was that of a saluting base on the occasion of the great Victory March that took place in July, 1919, a month after the signing of the Treaty of Versailles.

A special Cabinet Committee was formed under the chairmanship of Lord Curzon to deal with questions of route, what troops and other forces should take part, and so forth. And it was one of the meetings of this committee, about a fortnight before the date of the contemplated march, that the question of having a saluting base in Whitehall was raised.

The Office of Works was asked to suggest an architect who could submit a suitable design for the structure which, of course, was to be purely a temporary one. Sir Edwin Lutyens was communicated with, and that night he worked out a design which was accepted and was eventually to become the Empire's most famous memorial.

There are, of course, records of those Cabinet Committee meetings, but they give no clue, so it is said, to the author of the words, "The Glorious Dead," or the authority for inscribing them on the structure.

Who added them? No one to-day seems to know. The writer learned that the inscription undoubtedly appeared on the original temporary structure.

Sir Edwin Lutyens himself is unable to throw any light on the mystery. The words were added after the design had left his hands, and were not conceived by him.

JEWISH-MOSLEM RIOTS

Forty Eight Hours of Fighting

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press") (Copyright.)

Algiers, Aug. 6. The religious riots between the Jewish and the Mohammedans of Constantine, after forty eight hours of feverish fighting, left a portion of the city in flames on Monday, and the rest of it in a state of individual seige.

Roused by the alleged desecration of the main mosque by a Semitic citizen, the raging Mohammedans proved to be untamable by the local police by repeatedly storming the Jewish section. Though the Jewish inhabitants put up a sturdy opposition with clubs, knives, torches and even firearms, the Mohammedans scored heavily, a great number of shops being plundered and buildings burnt. With a dozen of private homes of leading Jews gone up in flames, most of the citizens spent a tremulous two days behind heavily barricaded doors with rifles at hand. Since the fanatical bands of both parties are daring death for their respective Gods, and more than a match for the meagre garrison and the police, a generalized S.O.S. was started, troops, gendarmes and even firemen marching to the rescue on Monday from the nearest cities of Bone and Philippeville. Unofficial estimates place the dead at 20, and seriously wounded at 200.

The Governor-General of Algiers, Cardo to whom the first news of the outbreak was reached, is in Paris, and is expected to arrive here on Monday by a hydroplane from Marseilles.—Transocean Kuo Min.

NO WAR FOR TEN YEARS

Mr. Lloyd George's Assurances

Paris, August 7. "I am willing to guarantee that nations need not fear another major war for 10 years," declared Mr. Lloyd George, in an interview with "Le Petit Journal." He said that there was no question that Germany was unable to make war at present.

"It is true that the psychological conditions necessary for war are present, but material facts must also be taken into consideration. I was head of the British Government during the Great War and I know how such a war has to be conducted."

He added that by letting Japan do as she liked in Manchuria, we encouraged German militarism.—Reuter.

Striking French Roadmakers Deal The First Blow

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, August 7, 4:30 p.m.)

Paris, August 7. Pitched battles were fought between the striking French roadmakers and Arabs at Lyons on Monday afternoon. The Roadmakers' Union had ordered a strike whereupon the owners decided to take on Arab workers.

Sixty French roadmakers posted themselves up as pickets and struck down one Arab who was without a Trade Union license. The Arab drew his revolver and fired several shots injuring one Frenchman. When the revolver failed the Frenchmen made for the Arab. Meanwhile about thirty Arabs passing by in a tramcar, seeing their countrymen in distress, came to his rescue. A regular battle ensued and the Police were only able to quell the disturbance after considerable effort. Thirteen Arabs were arrested.—Transocean Kuo Min.

LIQUOR CASE IN SEATTLE

Canadians Fail To Appear

Seattle, August 7. The Federal Judge, Meterer, has ordered Mr. George Reifel, son of the President of the Brewers and Distillers, Ltd., of Vancouver, to forfeit his $100,000 bond on which he was released.

He and his father, Mr. Henry Reifel, failed to appear at court a week ago and the Government consequently asked for forfeiture, but in Mr. Henry Reifel's case the defence was granted a continuance until August 20, counsel pleading that he was too ill at Vancouver to appear.

It is also claimed that the son was at his father's bedside, but the Judge described his failure to appear as wilful.

PROPERTY SEIZURE IN AUSTRIA

Vienna, August 7. The seizure of all property of "German Academic Society of Jurists" has been carried out by a police order here. This action is based on charging the Society with "Active in spirit forbidden to the National-Socialist party."—Transocean Kuo Min.

Evidence was given that two United States surgeons were refused admittance to the hospital where Mr. Henry Reifel was staying.—Reuter.

The two Canadians were released under a $100,000 bond each on July 9 on a charge of smuggling large quantities of liquor into the north-west Pacific area.

The Government also brought a civil action against the defendants claiming $17,250,000 for alleged evasion of Custom dues and taxes.

LINCOLNS HOLD
AQUATICSHigh Standard
Displayed

(By "TROUT")

The 1st Battalion the Lincolnshire Regiment held their annual aquatic sports at the European Y.M.C.A. swimming pool yesterday when some very good sport was witnessed.

I was particularly impressed with the standard of diving amongst the men and with the progress made among the sprinters.

The time of 14 1/5 seconds which was returned by Bandsman Guttridge in the 25 Yards dash was very good and with a little coaching he should in time cover the distance in about 12 seconds.

In the Diving there were several men who might have won the event had it not been for minute details which the casual observer would have passed over.

Pte. Rushworth who came third in the event spoiled his effort by bouncing on the end of the board before taking off for his standing dives. This lost him valuable points in his approach although I must admit his plain dive was perfect in every detail to the extent of flight and entry.

Again had L/Cpl. Joyner not been too stiff he might have taken first place but with the exception of his take-off, flight and entry, his approach was poor and instead of walking to the board in a smart but neat manner, he gave the impression of an automaton.

In the Battalion Championship over 150 yards, the winner won rather easily although he could have put up a better performance if he had thought out the race previously and reserved so much energy for the Breast Back and free styles. As it was he wasted much energy which could have been saved for another event.

Although the majority of short and middle distance events have been completed, there is yet the half mile and mile races which will be swum off this week.

To-morrow morning at 9.30 a.m. the Battalion half-mile race will be swum off at Shamshulpo while at 5.30 p.m. the mile event will be swum starting from Stonecutters Island and ending just off the Camp at Shamshulpo.

"Y" HOCKEY
MEETINGH.J.D. Lowe Elected
Captain

There was a fairly representative gathering at the annual Y.M.C.A. Hockey Sections meeting, which was held at the West Lounge yesterday evening and which was presided over by Mr. E. F. Selw, Chairman of the Games Committee.

Mr. Selk read a letter from Mr. A. R. Brown accepting the invitation to become Chairman of the Y.M.C.A. Hockey Club. Mr. Selk said that it would be quite a good thing if they could get Mr. Brown, who had been a member of the Hockey Section for some time, to fill this position and so leave the rest of the members to fill other vacancies.

There being no other nominations Mr. A. R. Brown was elected Chairman.

Mr. Selk then called for nominations for the post of Hon. Secretary.

Mr. Ingram proposed that Mr. R. Bates be elected to the post, Mr. W. J. Brown seconding the motion.

Mr. Bates said he was quite willing to fulfil the vacancy providing that the Vice-Captain of the First eleven who usually captained the second eleven, was left with all second eleven arrangements, for the speaker felt that he could not devote the enormous amount of time required by a Secretary for both the first and second elevens.

The chairman assured Mr. Bates that his proposal would be approved of by all.

Mr. H.J.D. Lowe, who represent the Y.M.C.A. in their senior games was elected Captain of the Club and the first eleven on the proposal of Mr. W. J. Brown and seconded by Mr. Bates.

Mr. W. J. Brown was elected Vice-Captain of the first eleven and Captain of the second eleven.

Mr. E. G. Palmer was elected to the Committee as the non-playing member and as the Y.M.C.A. representatives to the Hong Kong Hockey Association.

It was decided by unanimous vote that the hockey subscription of $6 for the year should stand.

The first practice game was arranged for August 25, Mr. Palmer suggesting that it should be between two "Y" sides with the object of selecting the first and second elevens.

GUIDE TO LAWS OF FOOTBALLVALUABLE INFORMATION FOR COLONY ENTHUSIASTS

In view of the approaching Hongkong Football season we commence to-day with a series of short extracts on "Players' Guide to the Laws of the Game of Football" which deals comprehensively with all the laws, the official decisions, instructions to referees and instructions to players.

To-day's extracts will be in connection with Law 1, and deals with the number of players, dimension of the field of play, the goals, the goal area, the penalty area, the dimensions of field of play and weight of ball in International matches.

LAW 1:—

Number of Players:

The game shall be played by not more than eleven players on each side. By arrangement made before the commencement of a match (but not in a match played under the Rules of a Competition) substitutes may be allowed in place of injured players.

Official Decisions

An International match is deemed to be a match played under the Rules of a Competition. (International Board, June 11, 1927). This decision is binding only on the four British Associations with regard to the International Matches. (International Board June 11, 1932.)

Instructions to Referees

Six-a-side and similar irregular competitions where gate money is taken are forbidden unless the consent of the County Association has been obtained.

Instructions to Players

Except through accident, a player must not leave the field of play during the progress of the game without the permission of the referee. He must report to the Referee before resuming play.

Dimensions of Field of Play

The dimensions of the field of play shall be—maximum length, 150 yards; minimum length, 100 yards; maximum breadth, 100 yards; minimum breadth, 60 yards.

Instructions to Referees

Refuse to sanction play if danger is likely to accrue to players from the state of the ground. As to the weather, use your own judgment, but do not needlessly spoil sport.

Marking The Ground

The field of play shall be marked by boundary lines. The lines at each end are the goal lines, and the lines at the sides are the touch-lines. The touch-lines shall be drawn at right angles to the goal-lines. A flag with a staff not less than 5 ft. high shall be placed at each corner. A half-way line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark, and a circle with a ten yards' radius shall be made round it.

Official Decisions

Flag-staffs, with pointed tops must not be used. The touch and goal-lines must not be marked by a V-shaped ruf. (International Board, June 16, 1903.)

Instructions to Referees

Short flag-staffs are dangerous; hence the minimum height of 5 feet. The Referee must not allow a corner flag-staff to be removed even for the convenience of the player taking a corner kick.

The Goals

The goals shall be upright posts fixed on the goal-lines, equidistant from the corner flag-staffs, 8 yards apart, with a bar across them 8 feet from the ground. The maximum width of the goal-posts and the maximum depth of the cross-bar shall be 6 inches.

Instructions to Referees

The Referee must caution any player wilfully displacing any flags or goal-posts, or pulling down the bar, and if repeated he should order the offender off the field of play.

Instructions to Players

Goal-keepers to save a shot or to get hold of the ball sometimes seize the bar and pull it down. Any player wilfully displacing a flag or goal-post, or bar, is guilty of misconduct.

The Goal Area

Lines shall be marked six yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 6 yards, and these shall be connected with each other by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the goal-area.

Y.M.C.A. SWIMMING GALA

Two Championship Events

The entries close to-day for the European Y.M.C.A. Swimming gala and a dance which will take place on Saturday, August 11, commencing at 9.15 p.m.

The main events on the programme will be the Men's and Ladies' 50 Yards Championship.

There are four entries to date for the Men's event including that of the holder, A. G. Donn. Since his operation on his leg it looks very much as if he will be fully extended to retain his title against R. B. Wood, R. G. Goldman and G. H. Fowler, the latter having made vast strides towards the elimination of superfluous fractions since the last gala.

There are no entries to date for the Ladies' Championship although it is quite probable that Mrs. Mead, the newcomer to the Colony who sensationally defeated Mrs. Schreuder at the Volunteer Aquatics a week ago, will meet the latter again for the Y.M.C.A. Ladies' title.

Six Ladies have entered for the Ladies' Aggregate event including the holder of the trophy, Miss A. Fowler who caused quite a stir recently by defeating both Mrs. Read (nee Maudie George) and Miss J. Weller at the Volunteer Aquatics.

Mixed Relay Race?

The Men's 50 Yards Aggregate Handicap is again the most popular event and has so far drawn eight entries.

In view of the lack of entries in the "Four Styles" Relay it is possible that the Ladies will be brought into it to make up for the deficiency.

The two other featured events on the programme are the Boys' and Girls' 50 Yards Handicap open to members of the Central British School.

A water-polo game between Club members will bring the aquatic programme to a conclusion, after which dancing will be held in the West Lounge.

The following are the entries to date:—

Men's 50 Yards Aggregate Handicap:—A. G. Donn, J. Anslow, A. H. Moss, A. E. Greenford, R. Goldman, G. H. Fowler, A. Mitchell and C. A. Higgins.

Men's 50 Yards Championship:—A. G. Donn (holder), R. B. Wood, R. Goldman and G. H. Fowler.

Men's Three Legged Race:—F. J. Anslow and R. B. Wood, A. H. Moss and A. E. Greenford, R. Goldman and H. F. Lange.

Mixed Four Styles Relay:—A. G. Donn, R. B. Wood, F. J. Anslow.

CURRENT NEWS FROM CHINA

CRITICISM OF NANKING

Wide Support For Mr. Hu Han Min

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton Aug. 7. Mr. Hu Han Min's statement to the correspondent of the Echo de Pekin, a French daily newspaper in the old Capital, criticizing the National Government, is widely featured by the official dailies here and circulated elsewhere through an official news agency.

This statement is fully endorsed in official circles here, although in recent weeks members of the omnipotent South-west Political Council have not given any political talk to press representatives. All these political chats are now undertaken by Mr. Hu.

In his statement, Mr. Hu again denied that he had ever planned to go abroad and said that all such "news" concerning his impending visit to Europe and America is manufactured by the Nanking propaganda bureaux and even by Mr. Wang Ching Wei, President of the Executive Yuan, who said that Mr. Hu desired to leave Hongkong for abroad.

"As a result of this 'invented' news of my going abroad, the boards at Shanghai are going up," Mr. Hu asserted. "Such story was circulated to enhance the prestige of the Nanking Government, which was hoping to negotiate a big loan from a foreign Power."

Mr. Hu also opposed the coming Fifth National Congress of the Kuomintang to be called by the Nanking Government, because in his opinion the Central Authorities have lost public confidence in surrendering to Japan. Mr. Hu added that what Nanking has done is contrary to the principles of the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen.

In connection with the Fifth National Congress, Mr. Sun Ching Ya, a Kuomintang C.E.C. member has arrived here from Shanghai. If the South-west leaders do not attend the Nanking Congress they have to take other action.

PANCHEN LAMA

Return To Tibet Delayed

Nanking, July 31.

It is learned at the Mongolian and Tibetan Affairs Commission that due to arrangements remaining to be perfected, the Panchen Lama, Spiritual Leader of Tibet, is not likely to return to Tibet before the end of the year. According to a telegram from Peiping, the Panchen Lama is planning to return to Nanking after his visit to Inner Mongolia. While the date of his return has not yet been fixed, it is understood that he will be here again sometime in October in order to attend the 5th National Congress of the Kuomintang Delegates which is scheduled to be held middle of November. He will probably be accompanied by the Changchui Living Buddha of Chinghai (Kokono) and several Mongolian princes, Kokai Agency.

THE LUANTUNG ISSUES

Japanese Troop Withdrawal Delayed

Peiping, July 31.

Despite the visit of Mr. Yung Tung, Managing Director of the Peiping-Liaoning Railway, to Dairen, the Japanese Kuantung Army Headquarters has shown no readiness in fulfilling its obligations under the Tangku Truce Agreement in connection with affairs in the Luantung Area. Under the pretext that the Luantung issues cannot be settled without a settlement at the same time of the other Sino-Japanese problems in North China as a whole, the Kuantung authorities are purposely delaying in withdrawing the Japanese troops from the Luantung district and refusing to agree to the dispatch of the newly organized Chinese Police Force into the area. As a result of this situation, General Huang Fu is still hesitating to return to Peiping and negotiations for the settlement of the Luantung issues are again at a standstill.—Chekial Agency.

REPORTED TRIP TO KULING

Surprise News For Gen. Cheng Kai

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, August 7. Brig.-General Cheng Kai, director of the political studies department of the Yin Tong Military Academy here, stated in a press interview that he has not gone to Kuling and expressed great surprise at reading news reports saying that he is en route to Kuling from Nanking to see General Chiang Kai Shek on an important mission.

Reports of General Cheng's mission to Kuling were issued on July 30 by the propaganda department of the Central Kuomintang headquarters in Nanking, and this story duly appeared in Chinese and foreign newspapers at Shanghai on July 31. Then a foreign news agency at Shanghai relayed the message to Hong Kong papers.

The Nanking reports stated that General Cheng Kai brought a memorandum to General Chiang Kai Shek from Generals Chen Tsai Tong of Kwangtung and Li Chung Jen and Pai Hsueh Hsi of Kwangsi under the direct command of General Chiang Kai Shek for the purpose of suppressing the Communists.

The memorandum was drafted by Lieut.-Generals Miao Pei Nan and Chang Jen Min, Chiefs of Staff of the First Group Army and Fourth Group Army respectively, according to the reports. It was said to have contained vital issues of co-operation between the Central Government and the South-west clique.

General Cheng said he is in Canton all the time and is very busy to prepare for the autumn courses of the Academy. All the stories of his trip to Kuling and his important mission are therefore without foundation.

CANTON'S AIR PLANS

To Increase Force

According to the "North China Daily News," Canton is imposing for revenue purposes a ten per cent. aerial defence tax on cigarettes—plans have been drawn up for the establishment of an aircraft factory and a plant for manufacturing bombs while Gen. Wong Kwong Jui, who is head of the mission which has spent some months abroad studying aeronautical matters, is bringing with him aeroplanes and machinery to consummate the plans. It is stated that the intention is to increase the air force to 27 squadrons, which is in the neighbourhood of 320 machines. The explanation vouchsafed for this large fighting fleet is that the air force rendered great assistance in the operations against the Communists on the Kiangsi-Kwangtung border, although it is a fact that several years of military operations have failed to suppress or even cripple the menace. In the matter of numbers the joint air forces of China are assuming a fairly formidable size which makes other nations' fleets, on paper, not so extremely large. With Canton aiming at 320 machines and the Nanking programme aiming at 300 machines, all of the latest type, there will shortly be in existence a combined air force which might alter strategic considerations in the Far East and will certainly cause misgiving as far as one neighbouring country is concerned.

Mr. Siu Koon Ying has been appointed Dean of the College. The Civil engineering will be under Mr. Fong Tai Tong, the chemical engineering under Mr. Wong Sik Hing, the mechanical engineering under Mr. Wong Ping Chit and the electrical engineering under Mr. Lau Kwan Hang.

HOMELESS PEOPLE IN CANTON

To Be Accommodated In Hostels

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Aug. 7. Homeless people in Canton do not have to spend shivering nights in the payment this winter, if the nine public boarding houses can be completed before the cold weather sets in.

General Chen Tsai Tong, Commander-in-Chief of the First Group Army, is much distressed at seeing so many people sleeping in the side-walks at night and believes this state of affairs is terrible during the cold months. At his instigation, the Canton Municipal Government will construct seven public boarding houses in Canton proper and two in Honam suburbs.

These hostels will be scattered in different parts of the city, so that the poor people working in the industrial area or loafing in the slum districts may find sleeping accommodation at night. The rent will be a few cents for one night.

Constructions of these houses are to be jointly undertaken by the First Group Army, the Bureau of Social Affairs, the Bureau of Public Safety, the City Kuomintang, and the Bureau of Lands.

C.E.R. TRAIN WRECKED

Exploit Of Chinese Volunteers

Tientsin, July 31.

According to belated information from Harbin, a freight train of the Chinese Eastern Railway was derailed by a band of Chinese volunteers at a point between Jenpo and Hailin in Kirin on July 25. The locomotive and seven coaches of the train were completely thrown out of tracks, resulting in considerable damage to the goods carried on them and wrecking of several coaches. Taking advantage of the wreck, the Chinese volunteers in ambush fired on the train and exacted a heavy toll on the Japanese guards. When the incident became known in Harbin several hours later, a detachment of Japanese troops armed with heavy machine guns rushed to the scene only to find that the volunteers had already decamped.—Chekial Agency.

to organize four Divisions of Mongolian Cavalry in Inner Mongolia and recruiting offices have been established at Dolonor, Linhai and Hailin to enlist youthful Mongolians into Japanese service. A training of Mongolians in modern warfare and at the same time, bribery and intimidation are being employed to induce the Mongolian Leagues to join the puppet state of "Manchukuo." The "Manchukuo" troops at Dolonor under command of Li Shou-hsin are now being reorganized by the Japanese, while the Japanese troops stationed at Hailin east of Chahar have temporarily evacuated due to the flood of the area.—Chekial Agency.

NULLAH OUTRAGE RECALLED

Fight In Tunnel Decubed

The case in which Ng Lai-yuen, alias 'Big Yick-lam,' alias 'Ng Yick-sun,' aged 23, unemployed, who is charged with the murder of Michael Pines, was resumed at Central Magistracy yesterday when evidence was given by several European witnesses.

Mr. J. A. Fraser, instructed by Mr. Lockhart-Smith appeared for the prosecution while Mr. R. C. H. Lim instructed by Mr. A. E. Hall was for the defence.

Mr. A. A. Andrews, Inspector of the Peak Tramways, the first witness called, said that on the afternoon in question, he was taking a tram down on the station side of the bridge. It was about 3.15 p.m. and he left the tram because he saw a little European girl in the nullah. She was on the west side of the bridge and two chair coolies were in the nullah with her, one on each side.

Witness went on to say that he went into the nullah and received the girl from the coolies, took her to the Tram Station and there received another boy from a soldier. Mr. Andrews concluded by saying that he had since discovered that the girl was Fay Bromly and the boy Tony Flood.

In answer to a question by Mr. Lim, witness said that when he saw the girl, she was standing at the water's edge, crying.

Washed Down

Yung Sui, a contractor's coolie, in the witness box stated that he was told by his foreman to go into the nullah to pick up "somebody." He then went on to say that he was washed down some considerable distance before he caught hold of the boy.

The next witness called was Sidney Bowles, attached to the R.A.S.C. He stated that he was walking up Murray Path on the afternoon in question when he saw a crowd on the bridge where the sentry stands.

Looking into the nullah, witness said he saw a European girl coming down, jump under the bridge and he jumped in, but by the time that he had got in, the girl was on him. He tried to catch hold of her but just then a coolie and a European boy bumped into him and they were all washed down. Later, Mary Pine and another boy were washed over him.

Witness continued that he struggled to get on his feet and when he succeeded, he ran down towards the tunnel but when he got there he saw Cpl. Giles and Mary Pine standing there while a boy disappeared into the tunnel.

Body Under Bridge

Pte. Sellars of the South Wales Borderers, in the witness box said he was on sentry duty on the bridge leading to Flagstaff House on the afternoon of June 22 when he heard some people shouting. Running to the bridge, witness said he saw the body of a European boy being washed away.

Sellars said that he ran down towards Queen's Road through Murray Path, to the edge of the tunnel. Looking over he saw a Chinese holding on to a European boy, Michael Pine, who was the same boy that he had seen earlier. When they disappeared into the tunnel, he (witness) shouted to Pte. Linton and then he went to the V.R.C. in a rickshaw to see if the boy would come out through the opening of the tunnel.

Fight In Tunnel

A fight with a Chinese man in the tunnel was described by Pte. Simmons who told the Court that upon information received he and Pte. McCarthy went into the tunnel and walked through the whole length of it when they were told that the boy had been got out.

Witness then said that as they were returning (through the tunnel again) they saw a Chinese man standing in the tunnel, with his back to the wall. He (witness) asked the man what he was doing there and on getting no answer, he tried to take the man out, laying his hand on the man's shoulder when he was promptly bitten. Then followed a struggle and the man had to be carried out forcibly.

Witness said that the man in the dock was the man he saw in the nullah. He was sure of this as he had a look at the man's face while they were in the tunnel, this being made possible by the light that came in through the grating. At this stage the case was adjourned until this afternoon. Mr. Hamilton intimating that he was going to sit up till six o'clock.

Here's how! — to enjoy good health — drink good, sound beer — HB BEER — daily!

H. K. CYCLING CLUB

Last Sunday's Outing

Following up Sunday's excellent spin of almost 70 miles, the "all-day" section of the Hong Kong Cycling Club, under the leadership of Mr. H. A. G. Keates, broke away from the main roads in the early stages of a most enjoyable ride, and sampled the delights of pass storming and cross-country going.

Starting at 9.30 a.m. from the Vehicular Ferry the party took the eastern fork of the circuit until the hill crest was reached, at which point the old iron signpost offered a track to the Shing Mun Valley via "Smugglers" and "Pineapple Passes." The reservoirs were safely crossed a wheel, but a half-mile ahead the cyclists were forced to proceed on foot for the greater part of the climb to the first pass. The heat by this time was beginning to make the going a little irksome, but frequent halts mitigated against fatigue and the crest of the track on the slopes of Needle Hill (1741 ft.) was reached after 14 hours.

Pineapple Pass, a little below the Shing Mun Dam workings, was reached at 11.45 a.m. after a prolonged glance at the progress made in the building of what is to be the greatest of the Colony's water storage. The final few yards to the road had been made very difficult by the intersection of the light railway down the slope to the valley, necessitating the carrying of the cycles up the slippery sides of the hill.

Trun-wan was reached at noon, and the riders then proceeded direct to Castle Peak Cafeteria. Refreshments were sampled, and the party adjourned to the beach to enjoy swimming and sunbathing until 2 p.m. The cycles were again mounted, and in order to obtain an appetite for tea, the wheelmen took a steady spin to the beach, returning to the Cafeteria at 3 p.m. to find the afternoon session, who had left Shing Mun at 2.30 p.m. already in possession of "the teapot."

The commencement on the return trip was not made until 6.30 p.m. when a fast pace was set which brought the Club to Shing Mun after very little over an

YORKSHIRE'S FIGHT FOR RUNS

Bowlers Do Well At Blackheath

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 20.—If lacking special features in the way of outstanding individual performances, the cricket at Bramall Lane yesterday fully interested some 18,000 spectators. Yorkshire, by scoring 238 for six wickets, made fair use of the good fortune provided when A. E. Sellers won the toss. After torrents of rain the weather remained too doubtful to give their opponents first innings, but the promise of a fine week-end suggests that the Australians may bat under improved conditions.

Had not Sutcliffe lost his wicket attempting a second run from his own hit to square leg, where Fleetwood-Smith misjudged the ball, Yorkshire would most likely have prospered more in run-getting. Sutcliffe stayed long enough to become the fourth Yorkshireman to complete his 1,000 runs, and was showing freedom when the disaster overtook him. This was a real calamity, as Sutcliffe pulled a leg muscle and may not field in this match. Mitchell, Barber, and Leyland in turn drove with power and certainty, but each got out when apparently used to the slow pitch, which was not dry enough to permit play until half-past twelve.

Leyland, like his successful colleagues, would have paid the penalty of a rash drive could Woodfull have reached a catch, but his luck did not hold good, as a humming ball went off his bat to the wicket-keeper standing back. That made half the side out for 150, and with the sun shining and the pitch likely to become tricky, a collapse threatened. Sellers, however, showed real ability and the true captain's courage. He lost Verity at 164, but for the last seventy minutes he and Smalles remained masters of the situation.

Smalles, the fourth left-handed batsman in the Yorkshire eleven, showed his captain the way to punish the bad ball, and then Sellers drove and hit to leg with splendid power and precision. Just one stroke over the gully, off Wall, helping to accentuate his good work, and he became the highest scorer with 49 not out. Smalles, by helping to put on 74 in seventy minutes, took part in the best stand, and so altogether Yorkshire finished very strongly.

Apart from Bradman and the bowlers in stopping return hits, the Australians were not at the top of their form in fielding, and it seemed as if Woodfull might have had men closer on the off side when the bowlers tied the batsmen up.

BOWLING MASTERED

Gloucestershire battled all day in their match with Leicestershire yesterday, scoring 449 for the loss of seven wickets.

When Barnett was splendidly caught behind the wicket with the total of 151, the partnership for the first wicket had lasted over 2 hours 20 min. Making free use of the drive, especially to the off-side, Barnett obtained half his 88 runs by boundaries.

With Hammond in, Dacre, who was lucky in the early part of his innings, reached his first century of the season. He was eventually dismissed by Hazlerigg at 215. His figures included a 6 and nine 4's. Such was the mastery obtained over the Leicestershire bowlers that, soon after half-past three, Gloucestershire had scored 250 for only two wickets.

Hitting out in all directions, Hammond and B. H. Lyon mastered the bowling. Hammond cut, drove and pulled with unerring accuracy, while Lyon was equally severe on any ball short of a good length. The partnership had yielded 163 for the third wicket in hour and three quarters, when Lyon, with the score 383, was caught by the wicket-keeper. Hammond was stumped at the same total after batting two hours and ten minutes for 114, his fifth century of the season following his huge scores of 260 against Kent and 217 against Nottinghamshire in Gloucestershire's two previous matches. Hammond hit one 6 and eight 4's.

SECOND-WICKET STAND

After five hours' battling the Derbyshire total reached 244 and Middlesex, scoring 23 for the loss of five wickets, were in the last thirty-five minutes of the finished 221 behind with nine wickets in hand.

A. W. Richardson, Derbyshire's captain, returned to lead the team after an absence of a month. Runs came so slowly on the soft pitch that in an hour the total was only 34. Both Smith and Alderman gave chances before lunch, when the stand had added 60 runs in less than an hour.

The batsmen proceeded quietly in the afternoon, and not until the stand had reached 91 in eighty-five minutes did Middlesex meet with reward, Smith then being leg before. The dismissal of the left-hander was the prelude to a collapse, three more wickets falling for 31 runs, and half the side was out for 159.

Eight runs later both Worthington and Richardson were dismissed, and after tea Hulme helped Middlesex by getting rid of Pope and Copson at the expense of one run. A last-wicket stand by Mitchell and Elliott brought 58 in three-quarters of an hour.

VALUABLE INNINGS BY WYATT

Warwickshire were early in trouble against the slow bowling of Partridge here yesterday on a pitch affected by rain.

Later, however, the situation improved, when Wyatt made his second 100 in consecutive innings, and also passed his 1,000 runs for the season. With Bates, who scored 70, he put up a most useful third-wicket partnership.

After tea, Buckingham and Cranmer made an enterprising couple, who added 106 in sixty minutes before the close, which gave a total of 365 for seven.

In his second over Partridge, at 23, caused Kilner to put up an easy catch to short leg. He was always difficult to play, and in one period of nearly half an hour only 6 runs were added. Still, 50 was reached in an hour and a quarter before Croom gave a catch to mid-out. Partridge, in his first spell of 14 overs, bowled eight maidens for nine runs and two wickets. Wyatt carried the total to 75 by lunch-time without further loss.

Northamptonshire, already without Clark, their fast left-arm bowler, who was unable to play owing to a strain, were deprived of the services in the early afternoon of Timms, he also strained himself.

DYSON'S BAD LUCK

At the close of play yesterday, Essex were 270 runs behind the Glamorgan total, with eight wickets in hand, in the first county match ever to be played at Neath.

Dyson and Davies (E) gave Glamorgan a good start, though, with the total at 80, Dyson gave Read a hard chance at mid-off. Immediately after the lunch interval, when the opening partnership had scored 92, Davies was leg before, but Dyson completed 50 out of 102 in an hour and three-quarters.

The second wicket pair increased the score by 80 runs in seventy minutes before Dyson was beaten when within sight of his second hundred of the season.

At 225 Nichols and Read had the use of the new ball, and this had such effect that five wickets fell in half an hour for only 17 runs, and the innings closed for 29.

Turnbull alone stood up to the last fast bowlers, and hit 73 out of 121, including eleven fours.

In the three-quarters of an hour before the close, Essex lost Pope and Nichols for 23 runs.

Brisk Business

New Tram Conductor (late shop assistant): "By Jove, I'm selling a nice lot of those two-penny sections, madam—they go extremely well."

MR. G. B. SHAW

His Reply To A Bishop

Speaking on religious teaching in secondary schools, at Durham, the Bishop of Durham (Dr. Hensley Henson) quoted from a book in which members of Bede College, Durham, described the religious education they received in secondary schools. One said: "We had one hour per week, supposedly for religious knowledge, in which we had read to us the plays of Bernard Shaw."

"That," commented the bishop, "may have been very interesting, but it could not have been spiritually helpful."

Mr. Shaw said yesterday: "I wish the bishop would read my books. So far as I know, I am the only writer who has made it part of his business to provide people with a credible modern religion. I said a long time ago that there was not in the whole world a single credible religion."

"Take the Apostles' Creed. How many intelligent, educated people can believe every statement in that creed? I believe in two—the Communion of the Saints and the life to come."

"But most people would understand my belief in the Communion of Saints to mean St. Paul, St. Peter, St. Andrew, and others, sitting round a table so that I might chide them. When I say I believe in the life to come, as a good revolutionary should, I shall be understood as having a belief in personal immortality, which is an appalling belief."

BICENTENARY OF CRICKET

Celebrated At Sevenoaks

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, July 19.—The bicentenary of cricket was celebrated in Sevenoaks. Two hundred years ago Gentlemen of Kent played a match against the Gentlemen of Sussex on the ground of the Vine Club—one of the oldest in the country. This match is being duplicated on Saturday next, when again a Kentish and a Sussex eleven will play in the costume of their ancestors. The two captains, Lord Sackville (Kent), and Lord Gage (Sussex) are lineal descendants of those who captained the original elevens.

Players in knee breeches, frilled white shirts, buckled shoes, and perukes battled with the baseball-like batons of the eighteenth century, much to the admiration of their appropriately costumed lady friends.

One woman rode a palfrey with all the period accoutrements. The whole town is straddled with bunting and coloured with gaudy decorations.

During the week there was a carnival procession to mark a point in the crescendo of matches, dinners, dances.

Unconcerned

A man who had to rush for the morning train and had not time to buy a paper said to the other occupant of the compartment who was reading one, "Well, what's doing in China to-day?"

"Dunno," said the other. "I'm in cutlery."

SHANGHAI COMMENT MARKET

Tuesday, July 24, was marked by completing the July settlement on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, which although not quite as large as the June settlement, interfered with the usual course of business. Both the rubber section and the general market were lifeless on the following day, interest being confined to sterling stock. On Thursday, the rubber section suffered because of lower raw commodity markets at London, Singapore and New York. The outstanding transaction of that day was a sale of 2,000 shares of Shanghai Lands at 6.65 August; International Assurance was recorded at 5.35, 1,500 shares being done at that price. Shanghai Telephones and Explorations showed some advance. Traders adopted a waiting attitude on Friday as a result of the political conflicts in Europe. The reaction was felt on the leading commodity markets of the world and consequently the rubber shares on the Shanghai stock market weakened. The nature of the business done on the general market was extremely limited in scope with prices fluctuating in a narrow range.

Following better news from the raw products markets a better tone prevailed in the rubber group. While prices were steady, only a moderate business was passing on the next day. A good demand was evidenced for City Loan 1934 issue, over two lakhs of dollars changing hands at 100.00.

During the last week of the month of July, when all outstanding July positions had to be liquidated, movements were limited and did not show any definite trend in either direction. After the removal of July quotations, the market exhibited again a stronger tone to advance steadily and slowly.
